Robber Looted a Farm House and
Carried off the Farmer's
Wedding Suit.

OWNER HOTLY PURSUED HIM

The Thief Stopped, However, and
Donned the Stolen Wed-

SHOT AT BUT HE ESCAPED

There was a robbery at a farm house near Port Homer yesterday morning, and for a time the little town was thrown into a state of excitement. Who the robber was, where he came from, and where he is located now are questions the citizens would like answered, for it is believed that the individual is a member of the gang who have been located in the vicinity of Port Homer for many months, members of which are now thinking of their past acts in the "walled city" at Columbus.

Mrs. R. Glenn, who has been married but about three months, and whose maiden name was Hawthorn, daughter of William Hawthorn, one of the oldest and most prosperous farmers in Hancock county, went to Empire yesterday forenoon to visit with friends for a few hours. Mr. Glenn was working the fields during the morning, and had occasion to return to his home about 11 o'clock, just a few minutes too late to see the "goings on."

"Robbed!" exclaimed Mr. Glenn.

He then made a hasty examination of his home, and to his surprise he found that the robber had taken everything in sight that he thought would be useful to him. He then made a list of the articles stolen, which were as follows: One new dark suit, one he was married in; one watch, one revolver, minus the bullets; cash, $30.

Mr. Glenn then went to the river. A ferry boat was just landing at the West Virginia shore. He saw a man walking up the river bank just after the ferry had landed, carrying clothing and other articles which had been stolen. As soon as it was possible to do so, Glenn also went to West Virginia, landing at New Lexington, one of the new towns on the New Cumberland branch.

Up the river bank went Mr. Glenn. Into the house of John Barton in New Lexington went Mr. Robber. It was from this home that Mr. Glenn saw the robber emerge later. It seems that no one was about the house of Barton when the robber entered it, and there he changed his clothing, discarding his old clothes for the new wedding suit which was worn by Mr. Glenn when he was married, and one that was highly prized for this cause.

That made Mr. Glenn more angry ever—just to think of a robber wear his wedding suit. Then Glenn went after the robber in wild western fashion. Glenn procured a revolver, and the aid of several friends was solicited and the chase commenced. Mr. Robber, who in the meantime had stolen a suit case, and packed his old clothes in it, was seen running up the road. "Bang, bang, bang," rang out the shots from Mr. Glenn's revolver.

"Take that," said the robber as he threw the revolver he had stolen from Glenn's house, back at Mr. Glenn.

"Well, what do you think of that?" said Glenn to his companions. "That fellow certainly has his nerve with him."

He certainly had, for he continued to chase up the road, across corn-fields, and wheat fields too, and finally managed to elude his pursuers. All this part of the occurrence took place on the Watson farm, and near the residence of Rev. Mr. Cuffman, pastor of the M. P. chapel at Nessley, W. Va.

The robber is described as being of medium height, wearing a dark suit—the wedding togs owned by Mr. Glenn—a white shirt, a black and white dotted necktie, soft light cloth cap and red hair. All the farmers within 10 miles of Port Homer have been asked to look out for the individual, and his capture is expected soon. Mr. Glenn expects to recover his wedding suit.

TO WED THIS EVENING

J. Homer West And Miss Jessie M. Wells Will Marry at 6 p. m.

The marriage of J. Homer West and Miss Jessie M. Wells will take place at 6 o'clock this evening at the home of the bride's parents on Sixth street. Harry E. Huston will act as best man and Miss Ella West, a sister of the groom, and Miss Sarah Wells, a sister of the bride, will be bridesmaids. Rev. N. M. Crowe will perform the ceremony.

The couple will leave on the Virginia for a trip to Cincinnati. Upon their return they will visit friends in West Virginia.

AGREEMENT REACHED IN THE TAX CASES

ALL BUT TWO EAST LIVERPOOL FIRMS INCLUDED IN IT.

They Will Pay the Amount Demanded by County Auditor Adams.

Lisbon, July 26.—(Special)—The suits of the various East Liverpool pottery companies against Auditor J. F. Adams have all been settled with the exception of the William Brunt Pottery company and the D. E. McNicol Pottery company. The suit against Koch Bros. also remains unsettled. An agreement has been reached between the parties, and the cases will be dismissed next Monday.

Willie Wright, who lives on Broadway, had a narrow escape from drowning last night at Tobin's coal floats near the Broadway wharf. He was swimming with some boy companion and all at once became cramped.

He sank twice and was rescued just as he was going down the third time by Wren Ritts, a helper, who is employed on the coal floats. The lad has made up his mind to stay away from the river hereafter.

WOOLLEY IN TOWN

Youth Wanted By Police Reported to Have Been Seen

Word reached police headquarters this afternoon that Woolley, the young man alleged to have been a partner with Robert Cooley and Charles Hutton, who now languish in the county jail awaiting the action of the grand jury, and charged with attempting to rob Homer Fairbanks, of West Market, has been in town several days and was seen this morning.

FALSE PRETENSE WAS THE CHARGE

James B. O'Neil Arrested For Alleged Shady Business Transactions.

HE HAD ORDERED PRODUCE

And It Is Claimed He Named as the Customer a Man Who Knew Nothing of the Matter—How Suspicion Was Aroused.

With the serious charge of obtaining goods under false pretense against him, James B. O'Neil, late of Cleveland, was arraigned before the mayor this morning and pleaded not guilty. He was arrested by Officer Woods at the instance of William Pastorius, manager of a wholesale produce house of Cleveland, which has been doing business in the city, with headquarters on the Horn switch.

Mr. Pastorius states that O'Neil has been doing considerable business with him, but that he has nevertheless been a little suspicious of the man's actions. Upon several occasions he states O'Neil has been given produce amounting to about $20, a man by the name of Lyons standing good for the payment.

Lyons is as good as gold, and he never feared for the money as long as that gentleman gave the order. But on yesterday morning when O'Neil appeared and stated that Lyons had sent him after 20 bushels of potatoes and four baskets of cucumbers, he doubted the truth of the story. After submitting the goods he made inquiry. He found that Lyons had never given authority for the purchase. Another fact upon which Pastorius bases guilt is that after buying produce at 50 cents a bushel O'Neil went not a block from the car and sold it for the same price. Both men have a number of witnesses. The case will come up for trial this afternoon.

A LOST BROOCH LEADS TO SUIT

PECULIAR CASE IN THE COURT OF JUSTICE McCARRON.

According to Report the Pin Has Traveled Much Since It Was Lost.

An action has been brought in Squire H. P. McCarron's court by Miss Ida Allison, of Second street, for the recovery, from Miss Eva Morrow, of a star-shaped, gold-plated brooch, valued at $5 which she lost on the streets the other evening.

The circumstances are out of the ordinary. Miss Allison was out walking with the brooch pinned to her shirt waist and did not notice that it was gone until the following day. She instituted a search for it, but for several days was unsuccessful.

While on the street at another time she happened to meet the Morrow lady and says she was very much pleased at seeing the coveted brooch on Miss Morrow, who said that James Butler had found it and given it to her. She immediately claimed the pin, but rather than embarrass the lady by taking it on the street, told her she might delay the giving until the next day. On the next day at the appointed time Miss Allison went after her jewelry, but met disappointment.

Miss Morrow, she says, had given it away. The defendant stated to the squire that she gave the pin to E. Wilson, of Chester, and that he in turn gave it to a woman in Allegheny. The question whether or not Miss Morrow shall be compelled to return the brooch or its value will be determined by the company's attorney, Henry Gregg.

He was taken to the King's Daughters' hospital, Steubenville.

STOLE A MARCH ON THE C. & P.

Wabash Seems to Have Distanced Its Rival in a Race For Rights.

SUIT FILED TO TAKE LAND

In Steubenville, Claiming the Pennsylvania Did Not Proceed According to Law In Its Steps to Secure the Coveted Tract.

Steubenville, July 26.—The real fight for the possession of land is now on between the C. & P. and Steubenville-Toronto railway, and from surface indications the Wabash has the best of the fight, as a slick movement upon the part of the Steubenville-Toronto railway, which is simply an extension of the Wabash, made last Thursday night, has given it an advantage over the C. & P. that will be hard to overcome, if indeed it can be done.

As is well known the C. & P. is doing everything possible to prevent the Wabash from reaching Toronto. Some time ago the Wabash commenced suit to appropriate property belonging to the Turnbull estate from Logan street north along the river bank between the C. & P. low water mark to the line of the Hartie paper mill property. A few days later the C. & P. railroad company commenced suit to appropriate the river front from the line of the Turnbull estate to the intersection of LaBelle avenue and Fourth street near the Panhandle bridge.

The defendants named in the petition were Richard and August Hartie and their wives, Edward G. Hartie, Mary C. Delafield and husband, D. J. Sinclair and John W. Cookson. It now seems, or at least the Wabash attorneys claim so, that the C. & P. failed to have a summons issued, and to file an affidavit for publication as is necessary when the defendants are non-residents. This oversight would leave the case out of court.

The Wabash watched every movement of the C. & P., and in the probate court, the company filed a suit against Hartie Bros., an other wives, Mary C. Delafield et al, and the city of Steubenville, to appropriate all the land along the river front, east of the C. & P. from the line of the Turnbull estate to the end of Fourth street, the very property which the C. & P. sought to appropriate in its petition filed ten days ago.

In its petition the Wabash company alleges that in order to properly operate its railroad and properly serve the interests of the public it is necessary to construct its road along the property, and for the construction of such track it has become necessary for it to acquire title to the land sought to be appropriated. The land is then described at length, and is all the ground east of the present C. & P. tracks in front of the Hartie paper mills and LaBelle avenue. The petition states the company has been unable to agree with the owners of the land as to the compensation to be paid.

The case will probably cause many legal entanglements as the Wabash people have already issued their summons and had them served, and also filed the affidavit for publication, which it is claimed the C. & P. has not done, and therefore the Wabash case should take precedence in their final disposition.

Had the C. & P. secured the land, it would have resulted in much trouble for the Wabash, and might have been the means of preventing the Wabash from entering Toronto, by the river route. It looks very much as if the Wabash had stolen a march on the C. & P. and secured an advantage that may result in it finally being given the land. The Wabash suit was filed by the company's attorney, Henry Gregg.

The company celebrated its opening by generously donating to churches and charities $300 of its receipts. The list of the fortunate recipients will be found in another column. Such liberality merits the success that is bound to come to the firm.

WHERE THE $300 GOES

Bestowal of Gifts By an Enterprising Firm—A Store to Be Proud Of.

The Hard Furniture company's new and palatial quarters on Fifth street have been thronged with visitors and customers during the past few days and the opening has been a pronounced success in every particular. A more attractive store or one better stocked on all of the three floors of the big new building cannot be found in any city. East Liverpool may well be proud of such an establishment, and the enterprising gentlemen at the head of it deserve the congratulations they have been receiving.

The company celebrated its opening by generously donating to churches and charities $300 of its receipts. The list of the fortunate recipients will be found in another column. Such liberality merits the success that is bound to come to the firm.

HIS PIANO WRECKED

An Italian's Music Machine Smashed By a Street Car.

On Third street there lives a woman who has iron bars staring her in the face. Her neighbors say she is beyond a doubt one of the most Heathenish beings in existence and are up in arms. For the past month the woman in question has made her home a veritable hades. She is the mother of two bright little children, the oldest being but four years. From morning until late at night, it is stated, that she takes a fiendish delight in torturing her innocent offspring. She uses several methods, but generally the rod is brought to play.

One of the neighbors states that she ounds the children until the cannot stand, and that she has even gone so far as to resort to the slavery day plan, that of sprinkling salt in the openings made in the flesh by a whip. The neighbor also states that only last evening the woman beat the older child unmercifully with a huge club.

Public indignation is so greatly aroused that the woman stands an excellent show to receive some of the medicine she has been administering if she does not mend her ways.

Abraham Slaughter was the defendant and Mrs. Martha Hanlon the prosecutor in an interesting case tried before Squire McLane yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Hanlon sued for $16 on a board bill. He claimed he did not owe the whole amount, but that Mrs. Hanlon had charged him for the board of a girl who acted as his nurse. Decision reserved.

The midsummer tournament of the Salem Gun club, held yesterday, was one of the most successful and hotly contested trap events ever held in this section of the state. So many visiting crack shots were present that the Salem people did not attempt to do much shooting. The local club devoted itself almost exclusively to entertaining the visitors and conducting the shoot.

Thirteen events had been scheduled on the original program. The twelfth event was dropped and the thirteenth was shot in the dark, and no record was kept of it. The 11 events shot kept the guns going from 9 o'clock in the morning without a break until dark. It is estimated that 8,200 birds were shot during the day and $1,500 worth of ammunition was consumed. There was some remarkable shooting done.

C. W. Phyllis, of Cincinnati, representing the Hazard Powder company, was the only manufacturing agent competing. He shot for exhibition purposes only, and was barred from a division of the purses. Phyllis holds the record, 196 straight kills, but while performing here he broke 86 blue rocks without a miss. The 87th bird he missed. He then continued, and broke 154 out of 160 shot at, and was high gun by one bird.

James Atkinson, of New Castle, Pa., at one time holder of the Western Pennsylvania championship, was high gun in competing for the purses. He broke 153 out of 160. Atkinson won first in the $25 added average money given shooters going the distance. He must have won over $60 during the day. Harris, of Cleveland, won second place, and was second in the average money.

Ellis H. Haak, of Canton, and Decker, of Cleveland, tied for third place, with 143 each and divided the average money coming to that position.

Pills, of New Castle, won fourth in the average money, breaking 135 out of 160 birds.

There were about 60 entries. Nearly every man entered, shooting in every event. But 16 men shot the full 11 events. Purses were divided on the Rose system, 5, 3, 2, 1.

QUICK PIECE OF WORK

Street Commissioner Frank Dickey Completed a Bridge in a Day.

It took Street Commissioner Frank Dickey one day to build one bridge, which is now spanning the run on Virginia avenue. It was a good job, and one that has long been needed. But the work has been done faster than any thought it would be. It is a good piece of workmanship. No sooner had the bridge been finished than the commissioner and his men went to High street and began to make a number of improvements there.

Considerable improving is being done to one East End streets just now, but one-half of this work would be done away with if some of the main streets of the suburb were sewer.

HOW THE YOUNG MAN CAN FIGHT TEMPTATION

Rev. Patrick Farrell, a native of evils in the world. More bitter tears than ever fell on coffin lid have been shed over one who is dead to God, morality and uprightness.

"What is this death that lurks in hiding for the young man almost at his every step? What is the poisonous breath which fills the air of this city and causes grief and mourning in the hearts of good and pious parents? So many have gone forth in life's bright morning with hopes and prospects rosy-hued as the aurora itself, soon, alas! to feel the power of the wicked world; soon to yield to temptation; soon to fall and die, and break some poor mother's heart. Where are the occasions of sin, the sources of temptation? EVERYWHERE.

"Pathetic is the incident in the life of Christ where he raises to life the son of the widow of Nain. We are touched by the tears of the sorrowing mother, by the compassion of the sacred heart of Jesus Christ, by the wonderful resuscitation of the young man. He who worked that miracle was likewise an only son. To his mind, on that day, there must have come in prophetic vision the sight of his own mother, Mary, mourning over the loss of her only-begotten, whom men had crucified and put to death.

"Christ speaks to the youth of Cleveland. Young man, I say to thee, ARISE. There is in this world today, many a mother mourning over her son, over the loss of one dear to her, a loss that comes not from material death, but from those sins which kill the soul and bring ruin and disgrace. Many a pious mother prays to Jesus to bring back her poor prodigal to a higher and nobler life. Death is not the greatest slave? Is it he who walks forth with bright eye, clear brain, happy and cheerful heart, with a pleasant word for everyone, with peace in his soul toward God and man? Or is it he who cannot control his mauldin steps, whose bloodshot eye is the sign of a disordered brain, who stretches forth his nervous hand to grasp the fatal cup for which he has sold his birth-right and his reason? Who is the slave? Is it not he upon whose mind impurity has seized, whose heart is consumed with the passion of lust, whose very being, body and soul, is corrupted by wild concupiscence? The mark of sin is stamped upon his brow, the wages of sin he must sooner or later pay in the destruction threatened by the Lord upon all who violate the temple of the living God.

"Shame on you, if you make your self like unto the beasts of the field! "I have seen the strong man after one disgraceful fall, with his face in the dust of the earth, his soul overwhelmed with grief, tears of shame coursing down his cheeks, almost afraid to sit alone with his conscience because he has forgotten the dignity of his manhood and has inflicted on his own self-respect an incurable wound.

"If you have fallen, arise. Tell me not that the custom of the world justifies you, that the scarlet letter is stamped upon the breast of the most of your companions. In your better moments, that will not be a satisfactory justification. It will not take away the bitterness that belongs to the dregs of the cup of pleasure. Let no mother weep for you, no inconsolable Rachel raise that lament so often heard in these evil days: "O would that he had died in his days of innocent childhood, rather than he should bring sorrow to my heart and disgrace upon my gray hairs!"

"Remember thy creator in the days of thy youth." Self-respect is a weak safeguard without religion. God's grace must aid you. No man is truly educated whose will has not been trained to virtue. Morality is above science, goodness is above brilliancy. There is strong temptation; it must be counteracted by a more powerful curb, that of God's law; by a more powerful attraction, that of the higher life, here and hereafter. There is danger everywhere; religion alone will point out the right path. With the help of God, with your own earnest effort, build up your character, have self-respect, arise!

"This above all: to thine own self be true. And it must follow, as the night the day. Thou canst not then be false to any man."

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, men—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous effort to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get this reliable remedy at Charles F. Craig's. Get Green's special almanac.

FOR SYSTEMIC CATARRH

Peculiar to Summer Pe-ru-na Gives Prompt and Permanent Relief.

Clem G. Moore, Editor of the Advocate-Democrat of Crawfordsville, Ga., writes the Peruna Medicine Company as follows:

Gentlemen---"After four years of intense suffering, caused by systemic catarrh, which I contracted while editing, and traveling for my paper, I have been greatly relieved by the use of Peruna. I gave up work during these years of torture, tried various remedies and many doctors, but all the permanent relief came from the use of Peruna. My trouble was called Indigestion, but it was catarrh all through my system, and a few bottles of Peruna made me feel like another person, noting the improvement after I had used the first bottle. Peruna is undoubtedly the best catarrh remedy ever compounded.---CLEM G. MOORE.

Judge Wm. T. Zenor, of Washington, D. C., writes from 213 N. Capital Street, Washington, D. C.:

"I take pleasure in saying that I can cheerfully recommend the use of Peruna as a remedy for catarrhal trouble and a most excellent tonic for general conditions."—Wm. T. Zenor.

Mrs. Amanda Morrill, 136 Reid street, Elizabeth, N. J., writes:

"I have been sick over two years with nervous prostration and general debility, and heart trouble. Have had four doctors; all said that I could not get well. I had not walked a step in nine months, suffering with partial paralysis and palpitation of the heart every other day, and had become so reduced in flesh as to be a mere skeleton weighing only 85 pounds.

"Up to this date I have taken Peruna for seven months. It has saved my life as I can safely testify. I have not felt so well in five years, having walked over one mile without ill result, and have also gained thirty pounds since commencing to take Peruna. In fact, I cannot praise it too highly."—Mrs. Amanda Morrill.

Peruna never fails to prevent systemic catarrh or nervous prostration if taken in time. Peruna is the most prompt and permanent cure for all cases of nervous prostration caused by systemic catarrh known to the medical profession.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

"I am pleased to give my experience with Wine of Cardui as I am very grateful for its help. After my first baby was born I could not seem to regain my strength, although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband came home one evening with some Wine of Cardui and insisted that I take it for a week and see what it would do for me. As he seemed to have so much faith in it I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

hers, as are their ambitions, triumphs and defeats. Healthy women do not suffer miscarriage nor does a woman who is healthy suffer tortures at childbirth. It is the woman who is ailing—who has female weakness—who fears the ordeal of becoming a mother. Wine of Cardui builds up the womanly in a woman. It stops all unnatural drains and strains—irregularities which are responsible for barrenness and miscarriage. It makes a woman strong and healthy and able to pass through pregnancy and childbirth with little suffering. After the ordeal is passed the Wine prepares a woman for a speedy recovery to health and activity.

Wine of Cardui, in re-inforcing the organs of generation, has made mothers of women who had given up hope of ever becoming mothers. Wine of Cardui will cure almost any case of barrenness except cases of organic trouble. How can you refuse to take such a remedy that promises such relief from suffering? Wine of Cardui simply makes you a strong woman, and strong, healthy women do not suffer. They look forward to motherhood with joy.

In their work at Salem by the nomination of James Kennedy, of Youngstown, for congress, the Republicans of the Eighteenth district, not only proved good judgment in the selection of a man, but likewise gave a pleasing exhibition of fair political play. There was no question in the minds of any one as to Mahoning county being entitled to the nomination, says an editorial in the Toledo Blade. The article speaks of the defeated candidates publicly pledging support to the successful one and further commends the work of the convention as follows: "There was no sulking in the tent, nor laying down of arms. Every man went away convinced that the convention had done the best thing that it could, and moreover had played fair. It demonstrated that after all, men in politics, as in anything else, really believe in justice, and that underneath all the bitterness and contest there is latent desire to do the right thing. A better and more capable man than Kennedy could not have been chosen. He is a man of splendid ability, a lawyer of distinction, a political orator, and a leader in the political and business world of Youngstown, Mahoning county and the district. He will be a worthy successor of Congressman Taylor, and the other great men who have preceded him."

Judge Phillips, of the common pleas court at Cleveland, has come to a wise and commendable decision regarding the naturalization of aliens. He says that hereafter he will issue naturalization papers to no man who fails to answer plain questions he may ask with respect to our form of government and the constitution. He says he believes that persons who desire to become citizens should be qualified to vote intelligently, not only to protect their own interests, but those of their fellow citizens as well. It would be well if the precepts of this judge were followed everywhere. We ought not, for our own protection, to increase unnecessarily the number of illiterate and ignorant voters.

The Youngstown Telegram is enterprising, as everybody admits; but when its boasts that it was the only newspaper represented at the Salem convention by two staff correspondents, the statement cannot pass unchallenged. The News Review was represented at the convention by three members of its own staff, to say nothing of the liberal assistance rendered by the Salem Daily News force, and its reports were the fullest and most accurate that were published in Ohio or elsewhere. The Youngstown Telegram is a good paper, but it has no monopoly in the field of journalistic enterprise.

"There can be no doubt," says Archbishop Ireland, "that the active co-operation of the Vatican is now assured to the American government in its task of pacification in the Philippines, and that in the results the administration at Washington will have ample reason to felicitate itself for having sent Governor Taft to Rome." Such an expression as this from such a source ought to quiet insurgent antis who have been predicting no end of trouble between church and state.

If the present Boxer uprising in China reaches such proportions that the great powers have to interfere to protect their interests and their subjects, as they did only two years ago, the world will lose patience and Chinese autonomy will be doomed. The Chinese must govern China, or they will forfeit the right to national existence.

The railroads, remarks a contemporary, have all the business they can handle. Delayed freight and wrecked trains seem to suggest that some of them have considerably more business than they can handle advantageously and successfully.

Cuba has been a republic but a few weeks, and it has developed an army of politicians and office seekers strong enough to annoy and perplex the president just as much as they do in older and bigger nations.

A Lancaster woman is trying to cure herself of dropsy by fasting. If the cure is continued long enough there is no doubt that it will be effective.

Bryan has no mercy on the boasters. If he keeps up his insurgent tactics he will soon find that he is in that class himself.

May Yohe will not prosecute the man who stole her jewels. She has already got more than their worth in advertising.

Fitzsimmons, like Bryan, seems to have joined the great army of "has beens."

Cincinnati and Chicago expect soon to be connected by a trolley line.

Lisbon, July 26.—The Thomas China company is experiencing an unusually brisk trade just at this season, and every department of the plant is in full operation. Orders seem to be coming in at a rapid rate, and the employees of the shop are more than pleased to learn it.

Owing to the present rush of business, the kilnmen have been compelled to work at nights in order that the firm might in some instances catch up with orders.

Charles Green, a dipper from the Chelsea at New Cumberland, has been here for about a week, helping out in the dipping house.

News of the serious illness of Richey Berson, a kilnman at the Thomas plant, at his home near Rogers, has been received by regret by his many friends about the pottery. His condition is said to be very low as a result of typhoid fever, with which he has been suffering since July 3.

While the decorating department is working very good at present it seems that many of the orders for decorated ware are for decalcomania. The company is presenting some very handsome designs in this class of ware at present.

The Cone Fire Clay company, of this city, which formerly operated chimney-top factory at Salineville, and which removed its moulds and other materials in this city, now occupying a part of the building owned by the East Liverpool Sagger company, has been unable to commence the work of making its line of goods on account of the non-arrival of clay of the particular kind that has been in use by the company for several years. The company has been waiting for three weeks for a sufficient amount of clay to commence with, but not a carload had arrived, although the clay is found in large quantities near Salineville. A few weeks ago a cave-in occurred at this mine, and the operators dug another entry to the mine, and it is thought by those interested in the chimney top company that they will be able to start operations within the next two weeks.

Kilnmen's local No. 9, at a meeting which lasted until after 11 o'clock last evening, heard a report of the committee that has been holding joint conferences with a committee representing the manufacturers' association relative to the placing of flat ware in the first ring in the biscuit kilns. After the report of the work one application for membership was received and Claude C. Smith, who withdrew from the local several meetings ago, was placed on the honorary list.

Within the past three days National Secretary T. J. Duffy has issued charters to two new locals, one in Trenton and one in Zanesville. One went to Trenton printers and will be known as No. 34. The local recently reorganized at Zanesville will be known as No. 39 and its membership is quite large.

Another session of the joint committee representing the kilnmen and the manufacturers' association will be held this evening in the rooms of the Potters' club for the purpose of further considering the question brought up by the kilnmen to refrain from placing flat biscuit in the first ring in the kiln.

The Oliver China company, of Sebring, are building another decorating kiln to their already large factory, making it a nine-kiln plant.

The Standard fire brick plant, Empire, is running full since the comple-

SCAFFOLD FELL

AND BANKER SILVER WAS BURIED BEATH IT.

COULD HARDLY STAND WHEN TAKEN OUT AND WAS BRUISED FROM HEAD TO FOOT.

Thomas H. Silver, president of the Silver Banking company and the Champion brick works, now building near Wellsville, was badly hurt at the latter place yesterday afternoon. Mr. Silver was on a tour of inspection around the factory when a careless workman caused a large scaffold to fall upon the banker, knocking him down and burying him beneath the debris.

When he was finally taken from the damaged scaffolding, Mr. Silver could scarcely walk and his body is bruised from head to foot. He will not be able to attend to business for several days.

The scaffolding which caused the damage was not finished, and the laborer who attempted to walk on the timber was not aware of this fact.

WILL USE OX TEAMS.

John H. McCord, who owns extensive timber lands back of the city, will hereafter employ oxen instead of horses to haul logs and do other work for which he has been using horses. He recently purchased three yokes of oxen while on a trip into the interior of West Virginia. In that part of the country, where the lumber business has reached enormous proportions, oxen are preferred to horses in many ways.

PREPARING TO PAVE.

Repairs preparatory to paving Coal street are now in progress, a number of workmen being engaged there. Surveyors are taking the proper levels, and it is expected to begin work by the first of next week. Contractor Rinehart has all the brick needed to pave Coal street along its entire length.

IN TOTAL DARKNESS.

Owing to an accident to some of the machinery at the electric light plant, all the incandescent lamps in the city were out for about 10 minutes last night.

WELLSVILLE SHORT STORIES.

Rev. J. H. Edwards will spend Sunday forenoon out of the city.

Mrs. Oscar Gordon is at the home of her father-in-law near Bergholz.

Frank Irwin, wife and two daughters, of Commerce street, are visiting in Grove City, Pa.

Mrs. J. T. Marsh is in Belaire, where she was called by the sickness of her sister, Mrs. Boswell.

Miss Emma Josepa, of Inverness, is the guest of John A. Joseph, of the West End, for a few weeks.

Clarence Smith, of Main street, is sick with typhoid fever, and his case is pronounced a serious one.

The little daughter of Vannis Cornelius, of Main street, is sick and the services of a physician are required.

Efforts on the part of friends to secure the release of Miss May Wrett, imprisoned for uttering forged paper have as yet proved of no avail.

Word is eagerly awaited from Mrs. C. E. Clark, wife of the pastor of the M. E. church. Mr. Clark left last week for Saranac Lake, N. Y., where his wife was reported dangerously ill.

Oscar Middleton and Frank Heime, train hoppers in ordinary, were fined $1 and costs each by Mayor Fogo. If their fines are not raised soon they may ride on a passenger train to Canton.

An elderly man, a stranger, wearing two overcoats in addition to a good supply of summer wearing apparel, was the sight witnessed by scores of people around the C. & P. station yesterday.

THE CHAMPION WON.

KNOCKED OUT FITZSIMMONS IN EIGHTH ROUND.

JEFFRIES PUNISHED SO SEVERELY THAT SPECTATORS HAD CONCLUDED CORNISHMAN WOULD WIN.

San Francisco, July 26.—After fighting a battle of eight rounds that was fraught with brilliant and courageous work, Robert Fitzsimmons last night forfeited his last claim upon the heavyweight championship. He was knocked to the floor by James Jeffries and counted out after he had so badly punished the champion that it was a foregone conclusion among the spectators that the Cornishman must win. Bleeding from a number of gashes in the face, apparently weakening, and clearly unable to cope with Fitzsimmons' superior skill, Jeffries delivered two lucky punches as Fitzsimmons paused in his fighting to speak to him, and turned the tide.

The final round was as follows:

Eighth Round — Bob stood up straight, feinting with his left and drawing Jeffries on. Jeffries smiled through his bloody features, ducking a left swing and landing a hard left on the ribs. They went at it, Fitzsimmons putting left on face and took one on the head. Fitzsimmons missed a right and took a stiff punch on the body. Jeffries forced the fighting at this stage, crouching low and carrying his right high and left far back. They came together and clinched. As Fitzsimmons stepped back he smiled and spoke to Jeffries, and before he could get out of reach Jeffries quickly hooked his left to stomach, ducking by left to jaw, and Fitzsimmons went down on his back. He came up slowly, but before he could get upon both feet the referee counted 10 and the fight was over.

WARS COST VAST SUM.

BUT HICKS-BEACH SAID ENGLAND BORROWED ON EASY TERMS.

London, July 26.—Sir Michael Hicks-Beach was the guest last evening of the lord mayor and city bankers and merchants at a farewell dinner at the Mansion house. In an address dealing with national finance, the chancellor said that the Chinese and South African wars had cost Great Britain £228,000,000, of which amount the taxpayers have already willingly contributed £75,000,000.

The expenditure has been borne without serious injury to commerce, and £150,000,000 had been borrowed on easy terms, which Great Britain's continental neighbors envied, but could not imitate. Next year, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach said, he looked for a revision of taxation, and he warned his hearers against the constant growth of national expenditure, urging that preparations ought to be made for a day of adversity, and that the revenue, though increasing, should not be impaired in times of peace.

SOME TRI-STATE EVENTS.

Ogden Eagle shot and fatally wounded Frank Hendricks in front of an East End saloon in Parkersburg, W. Va.

Elmer Wright, aged 35, a Baltimore and Ohio brakeman, was killed at Terra Alta by his train backing over him. He leaves a wife and two children at Cumberland.

RAILROADERS' DAY OFF

THREE THOUSAND PENNSYLVANIA COMPANY EMPLOYEES ARE ENJOYING A PICNIC TODAY.

The railroad employees of the Pennsylvania lines west are enjoying themselves today at Rock Springs park. A train on the branch this morning at 9:30 brought in 1,000 of them. Another train arrived at the same time on the C. & P. and also brought in about the same number. A third train on the C. & P. arrived at 1 o'clock this afternoon, bearing fully 1,600 more, so that the throng numbers about 3,000. The crowd indulged in all manner of sports at the park, and are happy. The excursionists also visited the city in large numbers, enjoying trolley rides, visiting the potteries and having a good time generally.

HEARING OF GOOD

WILL TAKE PLACE BEFORE SQUIRE JOHNSTON, OF CHESTER, THIS AFTERNOON.

The hearing of E. S. Good, charged with liquor selling will take place at 4 o'clock today before Squire Johnston. A number of witnesses have been subpoenaed in the case, and the trial promises to be quite interesting. O. S. Marshall, of New Cumberland, will defend Good and Attorney Ingram will assist in the prosecution. Thomas Luke and James Cartwright are witnesses for the state.

The regular term of circuit court will be held in September, and the grand jury will consider at that time the cases of Nowling's orchestra members. All have given satisfactory bond for their appearance.

WILL SOON BE FREE

SEVERAL OF THE QUARANTINED PEOPLE WILL BE RELEASED TOMORROW.

The guards will be discharged, but Fitzpatrick's nurse, Jesse Spurcock, will be retained until the patient is ready to be dismissed. The board of health of Hancock county has attached the wages of Thomas Fitzpatrick and others of the quarantined people of Middle run to pay, as far as possible, expenses incurred by them during the time of quarantine.

BOND ISSUE WILL CARRY.

The election Monday for the issuing of $20,000 bonds for street paving purposes is now assured of carrying, as the majority of property owners are in favor of its passage. Taking into consideration the small debt now of Chester, and the constant increase in property valuation by incoming industries, residents and dwellings the voters of Chester have no need to fear the failure to pay any indebtedness.

LUTHERAN VOLKSFEST.

The annual reunion or Volksfest of Lutherans of Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio will be held at Rock Springs park on Wednesday, Aug. 6. Rev. H. P. Donecker, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., and Prof. L. H. ## A FATAL MISTAKE

Is Often Made by the Wisest of East Liverpool People.

It's a fatal mistake to neglect backache.

Backache is the first symptom of kidney ills.

Serious complications follow.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them promptly.

Don't delay until too late.

Until it becomes Diabetes—Bright's Disease.

Read what an East Liverpool citizen says:

Mrs. Mary Hewitt, of St. George street, says: "I read in the Pittsburgh Press an account of some one who had been cured of kidney complaint in that city by using Doan's Kidney Pills. The fact of such an account being published of one living in almost the same place had a tendency to convince me that there must be some truth in it, and I determined to try them myself. Some years before this I had a severe attack of rheumatism; for three months I lay helpless, and after that I had trouble with my kidneys. For a year I suffered severely. My back was so bad that it felt as if I had a boil where the kidneys are. I could not bend, lean back against a chair or reach up. I could not lie on my back and about every move I made caused pain. I had taken numerous remedies, but none brought the desired relief. Well, Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the W. & W. pharmacy, did what no other remedy was able to do. I took them regularly for a short time and found them to be all that the Pittsburgh paper states them to be. I can heartily recommend them. After using them I was rid of backache and all other symptoms of kidney trouble.

Soia for 50 cents a box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Sold by W. & W. pharmacy.

An Alarming Case of Cataract of Stomach Permanently Cured.

Mr. Frederick Dubaugh, of New Philadelphia, Ohio, writes:

Life Plant Co.

Messrs.—I was attacked last August with a very serious and painful form of stomach trouble which gave me no rest by day and very little sleep at night. I used numerous remedies without any beneficial results. I was in constant misery with pain in stomach, which was increased, even by a slight pressure. For months I could not take any kind of food without suffering severe pain. This condition continued until I commenced the use of LIFE PLANT. I have taken six bottles and am now a well man, can do a full day's work, eat all kinds of food and feel no inconvenience. Yours, etc.

KENT CAME NEAR BEING SHUT OUT

▲ Three-Base Hit by Bracken Saved the Day for the Visitors.

MALEY ABLE TO FOOL THEM

The Youngster's Clever Performances. Fred Heckathorn Gaining New Laurels—Visitors Had Up-Hill Work And Made But Two Runs.

That three base hit made by Bracken in the eighth inning saved Kent the humiliation of a shutout in Friday's game. He did it so unexpectedly, too. Not having shown ability with the stick he created quite a stir when he landed so forcibly on the little sphere. At that Kent would have had its hands full in scoring had a few of the weeds in center field been chopped during the past year.

When Coleman went fishing for the ball it took him considerable more time to clear away the weeds than it did to get where the ball was. In Thursday's game he was lost completely from view when he made a dive down into the underbrush. Had he jumped up with the ball in his hand and claimed that he caught it no one could have disputed the fact.

Bib Webb's error played a strong part also in giving the visitors one of their runs. He got a little excited and tried to throw the ball away after Bracken had reached third. He says he won't ever do the thing again, and considering the fact that he has done so well of late he will be excused this time.

The most amusing part of the game was Maley's pitching. It is not because he struck so many out, but rather the way he did it. The ball that he throws one can ever judge. At one time it will be slow. That is the sort that fools them the worst. They generally play it for a home run and lay down their hands credited with being struck out. The swift ball is the other kind that he uses. Just at the time that they expect a slow one, over shoots the cannon ball and they fall before it in a like manner. The youngster has got so used to watching them bite that he seldom smiles after one has turned a few somersaults in a vain attempt to smash the ball.

If Fred Heckathorn is ever removed permanently from first base it will be all off with base ball in the Crocker City. Many people have stated that they went to the games to see Godwin or some other real fancy player exhibit, but it is dollars to doughnuts that the great throng goes for the one purpose of seeing Big Heck perform.

Hopping around on one stiff he certainly does some elegant stunts. And that original way of his that he uses after seizing the ball. Did you ever notice the underhand shoot he gives the ball and always at the same time looking in another direction? He is becoming the choice of the ladies more and more every day.

It is the opinion of the fans that Gibson had better be retained. His work in the past two games has at least fixed him O. K. for the rest of the season. Coleman will not be deserted either. He has a perfect wing and makes handsome catches.

In the first inning the locals started the game in a manner that was encouraging. By some clever base running and a hit registered by Webb they managed to blow the dust from the plate upon two occasions. For two more innings they were rather quiet, for emergencies.

and did nothing but go out in order. In the fourth they got in the wagon again and continued to ride until the sixth when they again fell out and were satisfied to walk during the remainder of the game.

The visitors started their lucky inning with Livingston to first on a dead ball. The next two men went out the first on a grounder to third and the second on a fly to Emmerling. Bracken saved the day with his awful kick. It may be that they were deserving of the couple for their hard work, but it was real grinding to see them prevent a shutout in the manner adopted.

Officials of the Pullman company have given instructions to rush the work, and it was expected that the coaches will be ready for delivery in about eight weeks.

The order requires the building of 52 cars. For each service four trains will be provided. Only three of these are required for actual service, but a fourth train will be kept in reserve for emergencies.

GLASSES FOR HEADACHE.

WHEN your head aches you almost invariably accuse your stomach of being at fault—you also almost invariably "dope" your stomach with one of the several hundred so called "best" headache cures—which for relief for the time being, are very well indeed. When you want positive discontinuance of the aches, however, look elsewhere than to your stomach—look to the condition of your eyes—some very grave troubles are found there. When the headaches comes from the eyes all the medicines you can put into your stomach from now until doomsday will not cure them—they need glasses. When they need glasses they will have glasses or they will continue to annoy you. If you accept good advice, however, you will not buy the glasses over a counter and do the fitting yourself. Glasses must be properly fitted or they are worse than useless—they are positively dangerous.

My time is at your disposal and examination costs you nothing.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Horse Taken Ill—A horse belonging to John Sterling fell in Apple alley while the owner was driving it through. After being unharmed the animal was unable to regain its feet, and lay for some hours. The horse developed a bad case of sickness.

Fresh Vegetables Coming In—Garden truck is coming into the city in vast quantities and growing cheaper every day. Green corn is now 12½ cents per dozen and new potatoes at from 65 cents to 70 cents per bushel, and other truck at even cheaper rates.

Ball Player Ill—Edward Schliather, of the Kent base ball team, who came to the city to hold down first base for the visitors, was taken suddenly ill upon his arrival and this morning returned home, accompanied by J. G. Paxton, editor of the Kent Courier.

Expect to Buy Trotters—Michael O'Brien, bench boss at Laughlin No. 1, and Taylor Larkins, kilman at Laughlin No. 2, are at Rush Run, O., where both will purchase thoroughbred trotters from a well known stockman. They expect to show East Liverpool two fast travelers upon their return.

Deserved Promotion—Ed L. McFarland, who for the past two years has been employed in the freight offices of the C. & P. in this city, has earned a deserved promotion, and left last evening for Cleveland to take a clerical position in the head offices of the superintendent of the C. & P. in that city.

Stone Throwers Fined—Three boys, Phil McCormick, Edward Prescott and Seth Nixon, were arraigned before Acting Mayor McLane last evening, charged with throwing stones at and breaking windows in Laughlin's pottery No. 3. They pleaded guilty and were each fined $1 and costs and given a scolding lecture.

Enjoyable Reception—A pleasant reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cannon, of Sixth street, last evening in honor of Mrs. T. Stapleton, of New York; Mr. John Lillis and mother, of Baltimore, Md., and Miss Estelle Denning, of Ravenna, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cannon for several days. The affair was a most enjoyable one.

Comrades in the Civil War—John Rinehart, the Second street liveryman and Ross Rex, his guest from Salt Lake City, Utah, were happy in each other's company yesterday. Away back in the days of the civil war, '61 to '65, they were messmates in the old Fifty Second O. V. L. known as "McCook's Avengers." They looked up old comrades of the Fifty-Second in Steubenville and Toronto, many of whom Mr. Rex has not seen since the regiment was mustered out. Mr. Rex, although a resident of Salt Lake City, where he owns many business interests, is also general manager of the Gold Dust Mining company, of Leesburg, Idaho, and has prospered wonderfully. He was born and raised at Richmond, Jefferson county, and will visit his old home while east.

13TH YEAR. NO. 175.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, JULY 26, 1902.

TWO CENTS.

A BOLD THEFT IN DAYLIGHT

Robber Looted a Farm House and
Carried off the Farmer's
Wedding Suit.

OWNER HOTLY PURSUED HIM

The Thief Stopped, However, and
Donned the Stolen Wedding Garments.

SHOT AT BUT HE ESCAPED

There was a robbery at a farm house near Port Homer yesterday morning, and for a time the little town was thrown into a state of excitement. Who the robber was, where he came from, and where he is located now are questions the citizens would like answered, for it is believed that the individual is a member of the gang who have been located in the vicinity of Port Homer for many months, members of which are now thinking of their past acts in the "walled city" at Columbus.

Mrs. R. Glenn, who has been married but about three months, and whose maiden name was Hawthorn, daughter of William Hawthorn, one of the oldest and most prosperous farmers in Hancock county, went to Empire yesterday forenoon to visit with friends for a few hours. Mr. Glenn was working the fields during the morning, and had occasion to return to his home about 11 o'clock, just a few minutes too late to see the "goings on."

"Robbed!" exclaimed Mr. Glenn.

He then made a hasty examination of his home, and to his surprise he found that the robber had taken everything in sight that he thought would be useful to him. He then made a list of the articles stolen, which were as follows: One new dark suit, the one he was married in; one watch, one revolver, minus the bullets; cash, $30.

Mr. Glenn then went to the river. A ferry boat was just landing at the West Virginia shore. He saw a man walking up the river bank just after the ferry had landed, carrying clothing and other articles which had been stolen. As soon as it was possible to do so, Glenn also went to West Virginia, landing at New Lexington, one of the new towns on the New Cumberland branch.

Up the river bank went Mr. Glenn. Into the house of John Barton in New Lexington went Mr. Robber. It was from this home that Mr. Glenn saw the robber emerge later. It seems that no one was about the house of Barton when the robber entered it, and there he changed his clothing, discarding his old clothes for the new wedding suit which was worn by Mr. Glenn when he was married, and one that was highly prized for this cause. That made Mr. Glenn more angry ever—just to think of a robber wearing his wedding suit. Then Glenn went after the robber in wild western fashion. Glenn procured a revolver, and the aid of several friends was solicited and the chase commenced. Mr. Robber, who in the meantime had stolen a suit case, and packed his old clothes in it, was seen running up the road. "Bang, bang, bang," rang out the shots from Mr. Glenn's revolver.

"Take that," said the robber as he threw the revolver he had stolen from Glenn's house back at Mr. Glenn.

"Well, what do you think of that?" said Glenn to his companions. "That fellow certainly has his nerve with him."

He certainly had, for he continued to chase up the road, across corn-fields, and wheat fields too, and finally managed to elude his pursuers. All this part of the occurrence took place on the Watson farm, and near the residence of Rev. Mr. Curfman, pastor of the M. P. chapel at Nessley, W. Va.

The robber is described as being of medium height, wearing a dark suit—the wedding togs owned by Mr. Glenn—a white shirt, a black and white dotted necktie, soft light cloth cap and red hair. All the farmers within 10 miles of Fort Homer have been asked to look out for the individual, and his capture is expected soon. Mr. Glenn expects to recover his wedding suit.

TO WED THIS EVENING

J. Homer West and Miss Jessie M. Wells Will Marry at

6 p. m.

The marriage of J. Homer West and Miss Jessie M. Wells will take place at 6 o'clock this evening at the home of the bride's parents on Sixth street. Harry E. Huston will act as best man and Miss Ella West, a sister of the groom, and Miss Sarah Wells, a sister of the bride, will be bridesmaids. Rev. N. M. Crowe will perform the ceremony.

The couple will leave on the Virginia for a trip to Cincinnati. Upon their return they will visit friends in West Virginia.

AGREEMENT REACHED IN THE TAX CASES

ALL BUT TWO EAST LIVERPOOL FIRMS INCLUDED IN IT.

They Will Pay the Amount Demanded by County Auditor Adams.

Lisbon, July 26.—(Special)—The suits of the various East Liverpool pottery companies against Auditor J. F. Adams have all been settled with the exception of the William Brunt Pottery company and the D. E. McNicol Pottery company. The suit against Koch Bros. also remains unsettled. An agreement has been reached between the parties, and the cases will be dismissed next Monday.

In these cases the plaintiffs claimed that they had returned a true valuation of their property for taxation and asked that the auditor be restrained from placing what they claim as an exorbitant valuation on the tax list. The cases have been settled by the plaintiffs agreeing to pay the taxes which the auditor claimed they should.

RESTRAINING ORDER

ASKED AGAINST THE TRENTON POTTERIES COMPANY.

Alleged That Its Capitalization Plans Would Violate the Charter.

Trenton, N. J., July 26.—William R. Wilcox and the firm of Wood, Havemeyer & Kearny, of New York, began suit in the court of chancery yesterday to restrain the Trenton Potteries company from carrying into effect the plan of capitalizing all accumulated dividends on its preferred stock, amounting to $550,000, by issuing refunding certificates, and to set aside a certificate filed by the company July 1, changing the character of the preferred stock so that in future the dividends should be non-cumulative instead of cumulative. Mr. Wilcox holds 104 shares of the preferred stock and Wood, Havemeyer & Kearny 800 shares of common stock.

The complainants allege that the proposition which was ratified by holders of $1,034,800 of preferred stock and $1,412,800 of common stock out of a total stock issue of $2,457,000, is in violation of their charter rights and, therefore, illegal.

They contend that the provision in the charter that the preferred stock shall bear cumulative dividends is a contract which can only be admitted by the express consent of every stockholder, and assert that the earning capacity of the company is sufficient to pay the cumulative dividends, and that there are at the present time surplus earnings which could and should be applied to liquidating the arrears of the cumulative dividends.

WILL AVOID THE RIVER

Lad Sank Twice While Swimming And Very Nearly Drowned.

Willie Wright, who lives on Broad way, had a narrow escape from drowning last night at Tobin's coal floats near the Broadway wharf. He was swimming with some boy companion, and all at once became cramped.

He sank twice and was rescued just as he was going down the third time by Wren Ritts, a helper, who is employed on the coal floats. The lad has made up his mind to stay away from the river hereafter.

WOOLLEY IN TOWN

Youth Wanted By Police Reported to Have Been Seen Today.

Word reached police headquarters this afternoon that Woolley, the young man alleged to have been a partner with Robert Cooley and Charles Hutton, who now languish in the county jail awaiting the action of the grand jury, and charged with attempting to rob Homer Fairbanks, of West Market, has been in town several days and was seen this morning.

FALSE PRETENSE WAS THE CHARGE

James B. O'Neil Arrested For Alleged Shady Business Transactions.

HE HAD ORDERED PRODUCE

And It Is Claimed He Named as the Customer a Man Who Knew Nothing of the Matter—How Suspicion Was Aroused.

With the serious charge of obtaining goods under false pretense against him, James B. O'Neil, late of Cleveland, was arraigned before the mayor this morning and pleaded not guilty. He was arrested by Officer Woods at the instance of William Pastorius, manager of a wholesale produce house of Cleveland, which has been doing business in the city, with headquarters on the Horn switch.

Mr. Pastorius states that O'Neil has been doing considerable business with him, but that he has nevertheless been a little suspicious of the man's actions. Upon several occasions he states O'Neil has been given produce amounting to about $20, a man by the name of Lyons standing good for the payment.

Lyons is as good as gold, and he never feared for the money as long as that gentleman gave the order. But on yesterday morning when O'Neil appeared and stated that Lyons had sent him after 20 bushels of potatoes and four baskets of cucumbers, he doubted the truth of the story. After submitting the goods he made inquiry.

He found that Lyons had never given authority for the purchase. Another fact upon which Pastorius bases guilt is that after buying produce at 50 cents a bushel O'Neil went not a block from the car and sold it for the same price. Both men have a number of witnesses. The case will come up for trial this afternoon.

A LOST BROOCH LEADS TO SUIT

PECULIAR CASE IN THE COURT OF JUSTICE McCARRON.

According to Report the Pin Has Traveled Much Since It Was Lost.

An action has been brought in Squire H. P. McCarron's court by Miss Ida Allison, of Second street, for the recovery, from Miss Eva Morrow, of a star-shaped, gold-plated brooch, valued at $5 which she lost on the streets the other evening.

The circumstances are out of the ordinary. Miss Allison was out walking with the brooch pinned to her sartorial waist and did not notice that it was gone until the following day. She instituted a search for it, but for several days was unsuccessful.

While on the street at another time she happened to meet the Morrow lady and says she was very much pleased at seeing the coveted brooch on Miss Morrow, who said that James Butler had found it and given it to her. She immediately claimed the pin, but rather than embarrass the lady by taking it on the street, told her she might delay the giving until the next day. On the next day at the appointed time Miss Allison went after her jewelry, but met disappointment.

Miss Morrow, she says, had given it away. The defendant stated to the squire that she gave the pin to E. Wilson, of Chester, and that he in turn gave it to a woman in Allegheny. The question whether or not Miss Morrow shall be compelled to return the brooch or its value will be determined Monday evening.

Brakeman Lost a Leg.

Mingo Junction, July 26.—(Special)—A brakeman named Jones, who lately came from the B. & O., and entered the service of the W. & L. E. railway, while employed on the shifter in the National Steel company's yards last night at 1 o'clock, was ran over by one of the hot metal cars and had a leg cut off. He was taken to the King's Daughters' hospital, Steubenville.

Appointed Administrator.

Lisbon, July 26.—(Special)—Emma A. Bott has been appointed administrator of the estate of Thomas Pott, East Liverpool. John J. Donnelly has been appointed administrator of the estate of Mary Wait, Butler township.

STOLE A MARCH ON THE C. & P.

Wabash Seems to Have Distracted Its Rival in a Race For Rights.

SUIT FILED TO TAKE LAND

In Steubenville, Claiming the Pennsylvania Did Not Proceed According to Law in Its Steps to Secure the Coveted Tract.

Steubenville, July 26.—The real fight for the possession of land is now on between the C. & P. and Steubenville-Toronto railway, and from surface indications the Wabash has the best of the fight, as a slick movement upon the part of the Steubenville-Toronto railway, which is simply an extension of the Wabash, made last Thursday night, has given it an advantage over the C. & P. that will be hard to overcome, if indeed it can be done.

As is well known the C. & P. is doing everything possible to prevent the Wabash from reaching Toronto. Some time ago the Wabash commenced suit to appropriate property belonging to the Turnbull estate from Logan street north along the river bank between the C. & P. low water mark to the line of the Hartje paper mill property. A few days later the C. & P. railroad company commenced suit to appropriate the river front from the line of the Turnbull estate to the intersection of LaBelle avenue and Fourth street near the Panhandle bridge.

The defendants named in the petition were Richard and August Hartje and their wives, Edward G. Hartje, Mary C. Delafield and husband, D. J. Sinclair and John W. Cookson. It now seems, or at least the Wabash attorneys claim so, that the C. & P. failed to have a summons issued, and to file an affidavit for publication as is necessary when the defendants are non-residents. This oversight would leave the case out of court.

The Wabash watched every movement of the C. & P., and in the probate court, the company filed a suit against Hartje Bros., an other wives, Mary C. Delafield et al., and the city of Steubenville, to appropriate all the land along the river front, east of the C. & P. from the line of the Turnbull estate to the end of Fourth street, the very property which the C. & P. sought to appropriate in its petition filed ten days ago.

In its petition the Wabash company alleges that in order to properly operate its railroad and properly serve the interests of the public it is necessary to construct its road along the property, and for the construction of such track it has become necessary for it to acquire title to the land sought to be appropriated. The land is then described at length, and is all the ground east of the present C. & P. tracks in front of the Hartje paper mills and LaBelle avenue. The petition states the company has been unable to agree with the owners of the land as to the compensation to be paid.

The case will probably cause many legal entanglements as the Wabash people have already issued their summons and had them served, and also filed the affidavit for publication, which it is claimed the C. & P. has not done, and therefore the Wabash case should take precedence in their final disposition. Had the C. & P. secured the land, it would have resulted in much trouble for the Wabash, and might have been the means of preventing the Wabash from entering Toronto, by the river route. It looks very much as if the Wabash had stolen a march on the C. & P. and secured an advantage that may result in it finally being given the land. The Wabash suit was filed by the company's attorney, Henry Gregg.

HEATHENISH CRUELTY

A Third Street Woman Accused of Beating Children Till They Can't Stand.

On Third street there lives a woman who has iron bars staring her in the face. Her neighbors say she is beyond a doubt one of the most heathenish beings in existence and are up in arms. For the past month the woman in question has made her home a veritable hades. She is the mother of two bright little children, the oldest being but four years. From morning until late at night, it is stated, that she takes a fiendish delight in torturing her innocent offspring. She uses several methods, but generally the rod is brought to play. One of the neighbors states that she pounds the children until she cannot stand, and that she has even gone so far as to resort to the slavery day plan, that of sprinkling salt in the openings made in the flesh by a whip. The neighbor also states that only last evening the woman beat the older child unmercifully with a huge club. Public indignation is so greatly aroused that the woman stands an excellent show to receive some of the medicine she has been administering if she does not mend her ways.

NEW INDUSTRY AT IRONDALE

OLD TIN MILL PLANT WILL SOON BE A BUSY PLACE.

It Will be Converted Into Tile Roofing Works And Extensively Operated.

Irondale, July 26.—(Special)—Irondale is to have a big and important new industry. Pittsburg and Steubenville capitalists, headed by Fred Owesney, of the latter city, and who is also interested in the East Ohio sewer pipe plant of Irondale, have leased the site and old building of the old tin mill plant, and will start immediately to convert it into a plant for manufacturing tile roofing. This roofing has been tested in many of the large cities and is coming into great demand.

The plant will also be equipped with all the necessary machinery, and will employ quite a force to operate it.

The clay for the manufacture of the tile is found in abundant quantities in the vicinity where the plant will be located. There are many features left of the old tin mill that can be used effectively in the operations of the tile plant.

The parties closed the lease for the tin mill property yesterday.

MRS. KNOWLES IS ILL

And the Remains of Her Husband Will Not Be Sent Home Till Next Week.

Messages were received at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Lee, of Fifth street, early yesterday evening, announcing the illness of Mrs. Isaac W. Knowles, at the home of her son, Willis Knowles, at El Montecito, Cal. The message also stated that owing to this illness of Mrs. Knowles the body of Mr. Knowles would not leave California for East Liverpool until next Monday, and that its arrival in this city was not expected until next Friday morning, either on the early Cleveland express from Rochester or upon the train due here at 10:00 o'clock. Connections at Chicago depend upon this answer.

Not until the arrival of the body of Mr. Knowles and of those who accompany it will the arrangements for the funeral be completed.

WHERE THE $300 GOES

Bestowal of Gifts By an Enterprising Firm—A Store to Be Proud Of.

The Hard Furniture company's new and palatial quarters on Fifth street have been thronged with visitors and customers during the past few days and the opening has been pronounced success in every particular. A more attractive store or one better stocked on all of the three floors of the big new building cannot be found in any city. East Liverpool may well be proud of such an establishment, and the enterprising gentlemen at the head of it deserve the congratulations they have been receiving.

The company celebrated its opening by generously donating to churches and charities $300 of its receipts. The list of the fortunate recipients will be found in another column. Such liberal merit the success that is bound to come to the firm.

A traveling Italian on his way to this city with a piano on wheels was overtaken by a street car in the narrow above the spring near Walker, the car striking his outfit, smashing the piano to pieces and throwing it over the hill. The Italian narrowly escaped injury.

Disputed Board Bill.

Abraham Slaughter was the defendant and Mrs. Martha Hanlon the plaintiff in an interesting case tried before Squire McLane yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Hanlon sued for $16 on a board bill. He claimed he did not owe the whole amount, but that Mrs. Hanlon had charged him for the board of a girl who acted as his nurse. Defense reserved.

PASTOR AND PEOPLE

JOYOUS RECEPTION GIVEN REV. D. W. M'QUISTON AND WIFE.

Several Clergymen Present to Extend the Right Hand of Fellowship.

The reception tendered last evening to Rev. and Mrs. D. W. McQuiston at the Second U. P. church on St. George street by the members of the congregation, was a successful event in every particular. Between 200 and 300 persons were present during the evening, and the time was spent in a manner most pleasing to all. The chairman of the evening was Elmer A. Stevenson, and there was present from other churches, Rev. George W. Orcutt, of the Erie street M. E. church; Rev. N. M. Crowe, of the Second Presbyterian church, and Rev. J. N. Swan.

The devotional services at the opening of the reception were in charge of Rev. George W. Orcutt, and this was followed by a short address by Rev. J. N. Swan. Rev. N. M. Crowe told the congregation what he knew of Rev. Mr. McQuiston, stating that he was well acquainted with the new pastor's work in other fields, and that he was just like his father, who was one of the most successful preachers in the country. A short address was also made by Rev. W. Bruce Gillis, of the Chester U. P. church, and this was followed by a short address by Rev. Mr. McQuiston.

The reception came next during which the luncheon was served. During the reception the choir of the church rendered several selections in a commendable manner. Special credit should be given the committee of young people who had the arrange-

General Debility

Day in and out there is that feeling of weakness that makes a burden of itself.

Food does not strengthen.

Sleep does not refresh. It is hard to do, hard to bear, what should be easy, — vitality is on the ebb, and the whole system suffers.

ments for the reception to look after. They did their work exceedingly well and in a manner that will long be remembered by both pastor and people.

QUICK PIECE OF WORK

Street Commissioner Frank Dickey Completed a Bridge in a Day.

It took Street Commissioner Frank Dickey one day to build one bridge, which is now spanning the run on Virginia avenue. It was a good job, and one that has long been needed. But the work has been done faster than any thought it would be. It is a good piece of workmanship. No sooner had the bridge been finished than the commissioner and his men went to High street and began to make a number of improvements there.

Considerable improving is being done to one East End streets just now, but one-half of this work would be done away with if some of the main streets of the suburb were sewer'd.

Purchased Two Lots.

John A. Proctor, of Proctor, W. Va., will soon be a resident of the East End. He had bought two lots in the Taylor & Croxall addition in Helena from Prof. R. E. Rayman and Prof. Laughlin, the deeds being made out yesterday, $1,000 being paid for the two lots. Mr. Proctor will commence at once the erection of a fine residence on these properties.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Fuller, of Calhoun addition.

Mrs. J. H. Smith is ill at her home on Pennsylvania avenue threatened with fever.

Mrs. Lue Dixson, of the East End, has returned from a visit with friends at Newark, Buckeye Lake and Columbus.

Charles Hull, of Steubenville, has removed his family and household effects to the East End. He is occupying a residence on St. George street.

Mrs. J. L. Fulton and son, who have been visiting friends and relatives at Smith's Ferry for several days, have returned to their home in the East End.

Local No. 52, street railway employes of this city, will meet this evening, in their hall on First avenue. Important business is to be transacted and several applications for membership are to be considered.

HOW THE YOUNG MAN CAN FIGHT TEMPTATION

Rev. Patrick Farrell, a native of this city, and a graduate of the East Liverpool high schools, is now pastor of St. John's Cathedral at Cleveland. He has numerous relatives and friends in the city. He recently attended the banquet of the alumni association held at Rock Springs park. The Cleveland Press a few days ago published the following from the pen of Father Farrell, together with the cut herewith reproduced. The article is headed "Dangers to Young Men," the theme being "Young man, I say to thee arise."

"Pathetic is the incident in the life of Christ where he raises to life the son of the widow of Nain. We are touched by the tears of the sorrowing mother, by the compassion of the sacred heart of Jesus Christ, by the wonderful resuscitation of the young man. He who worked that miracle was likewise an only son. To his mind, on that day, there must have come in prophetic vision the sight of his own mother, Mary, mourning over the loss of her only-begotten, whom men had crucified and put to death.

"Christ speaks to the youth of Cleveland. Young man, I say to thee, ARISE. There is in this world today, many a mother mourning over her son, over the loss of one dear to her, a loss that comes not from material death, but from those sins which kill the soul and bring ruin and disgrace. Many a pious mother prays to Jesus to bring back her poor prodigal to a higher and nobler life. Death is not the greatest slave? Is it he who walks forth with bright eye, clear brain, happy and cheerful heart, with a pleasant word for everyone, with peace in his soul toward God and man? Or is it he who cannot control his mauldin steps, whose bloodshot eye is the sign of a disordered brain, who stretches forth his nervous hand to grasp the fatal cup for which he has sold his birthright and his reason? Who is the slave? Is it he upon whose mind impurity has seized, whose heart is consumed with the passion of lust, whose very being, body and soul, is corrupted by wild concupiscence? The mark of sin is stamped upon his brow, the wages of sin he must sooner or later pay in the destruction threatened by the Lord upon all who violate the temple of the living God.

"Shame on you, if you make yourself like unto the beasts of the field!

"I have seen the strong man after one disgraceful fall, with his face in the dust of the earth, his soul overwhelmed with grief, tears of shame coursing down his cheeks, almost afraid to sit alone with his conscience because he has forgotten the dignity of his manhood and has inflicted on his own self-respect an incurable wound.

"If you have fallen, arise. Tell me not that the custom of the world justifies you, that the scarlet letter is stamped upon the breast of the most of your companions. In your better moments, that will not be a satisfactory justification. It will not take away the bitterness that belongs to the dregs of the cup of pleasure. Let no mother weep for you, no inconsolable Rachel raise that lament so often heard in these evil days: 'O would that he had died in his days of innocent childhood, rather than he should bring sorrow to my heart and disgrace upon my gray hairs!'

"Remember thy creator in the days of thy youth. Self-respect is a weak safeguard without religion. God's grace must aid you. No man is truly educated whose will has not been trained to virtue. Morality is above science, goodness is above brilliancy. There is strong temptation; it must be counteracted by a more powerful curb, that of God's law; by a more powerful attraction, that of the higher life, here and hereafter. There is danger everywhere; religion alone will point out the right path. With the help of God, with your own earnest effort, build up your character, have self-respect, arise!

"This above all: to thine own self be true, And it must follow, as the night the day, Thou canst not then be false to any man."

FOR SYSTEMIC CATARRH

Peculiar to Summer Pe-ru-na Gives Prompt and Permanent Relief.

Clem G. Moore, Editor of the Advocate-Democrat of Crawfordsville, Ga., writes the Peruna Medicine Company as follows:

Gentlemen—After four years of intense suffering, caused by systemic catarrh, which I contracted while editing, and traveling for my paper, I have been greatly relieved by the use of Peruna. I gave up work during these years of torture, tried various remedies and many doctors, but all the permanent relief came from the use of Peruna. My trouble was called Indigestion, but it was catarrh all through my system, and a few bottles of Peruna made me feel like another person, noting the improvement after I had used the first bottle. Peruna is undoubtedly the best catarrh remedy ever compounded.---CLEM G. MOORE.

Judge Wm. T. Zenor, of Washington, D. C., writes from 213 N. Capital Street, Washington, D. C.:

"I take pleasure in saying that I can cheerfully recommend the use of Peruna as a remedy for catarrhal trouble and a most excellent tonic for general conditions."—Wm. T. Zenor.

Mrs. Amanda Morrill, 136 Reid street, Elizabeth, N. J., writes:

"I have been sick over two years with nervous prostration and general debility, and heart trouble. Have had four doctors; all said that I could not get well. I had not walked a step in nine months, suffering with partial paralysis and palpitation of the heart every other day, and had become so reduced in flesh as to be a mere skeleton weighing only 85 pounds.

"Up to this date I have taken Peruna for seven months. It has saved my life as I can safely testify. I have not felt so well in five years, having walked over one mile without ill result, and have also gained thirty pounds since commencing to take Peruna. In fact, I cannot praise it too highly."—Mrs. Amanda Morrill.

Peruna never fails to prevent systemic catarrh or nervous prostration if taken in time. Peruna is the most prompt and permanent cure for all cases of nervous prostration caused by systemic catarrh known to the medical profession.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. Fred Unrath,

No. 228 Territorial Street, Benton Harbor, Mich.

"I am pleased to give my experience with Wine of Cardui as I am very grateful for its help. After my first baby was born I could not seem to regain my strength, although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband came home one evening with some Wine of Cardui and insisted that I take it for a week and see what it would do for me. As he seemed to have so much faith in it I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

MOTHERHOOD is the noblest duty and highest privilege women can achieve or aspire to. Without this privilege women do not get all there is in life—too often they go through the world discontented, wrapped up in their own selfish cares and troubles. How different is the happy mother, watching her children grow into manhood and womanhood. A mother lives as many lives as she has children—their joys and sorrows are hers, as are their ambitions, triumphs and defeats. Healthy women do not suffer miscarriage nor does a woman who is healthy suffer tortures at childbirth. It is the woman who is ailing—who has female weakness—who fears the ordeal of becoming a mother. Wine of Cardui builds up the womanly in a woman. It stops all unnatural drains and strains—irregularities which are responsible for barrenness and miscarriage. It makes a woman strong and healthy and able to pass through pregnancy and childbirth with little suffering. After the ordeal is passed the Wine prepares a woman for a speedy recovery to health and activity.

Wine of Cardui, in re-enforcing the organs of generation, has made mothers of women who had given up hope of ever becoming mothers. Wine of Cardui will cure almost any case of barrenness except cases of organic trouble. How can you refuse to take such a remedy that promises such relief from suffering? Wine of Cardui simply makes you a strong woman, and strong, healthy women do not suffer. They look forward to motherhood with joy.

"In their work at Salem by the nomination of James Kennedy, of Youngstown, for congress, the Republicans of the Eighteenth district, not only proved good judgment in the selection of a man, but likewise gave a pleasing exhibition of fair political play. There was no question in the minds of any one as to Mahoning county being entitled to the nomination," says an editorial in the Toledo Blade. The article speaks of the defeated candidates publicly pledging support to the successful one and further commends the work of the convention as follows: "There was no sulking in the tent, nor laying down of arms. Every man went away convinced that the convention had done the best thing that it could, and moreover had played fair. It demonstrated that after all, men in politics, as in anything else, really believe in justice, and that underneath all the bitterness and contest there is latent desire to do the right thing. A better and more capable man than Kennedy could not have been chosen. He is a man of splendid ability, a lawyer of distinction, a political orator, and a leader in the political and business world of Youngstown, Mahoning county and the district. He will be a worthy successor of Congressman Taylor, and the other great men who have preceded him."

Judge Phillips, of the common pleas court at Cleveland, has come to a wise and commendable decision regarding the naturalization of aliens. He says that hereafter he will issue naturalization papers to no man who fails to answer plain questions he may ask with respect to our form of government and the constitution. He says he believes that persons who desire to become citizens should be qualified to vote intelligently, not only to protect their own interests, but those of their fellow citizens as well. It would be well if the precepts of this judge were followed everywhere. We ought not, for our own protection, to increase unnecessarily the number of illiterate and ignorant voters.

The Youngstown Telegram is enterprising, as everybody admits; but when its boasts that it was the only newspaper represented at the Salem convention by two staff correspondents, the statement cannot pass unchallenged. The News Review was represented at the convention by three members of its own staff, to say nothing of the liberal assistance rendered by the Salem Daily News force, and its reports were the fullest and most accurate that were published in Ohio or elsewhere. The Youngstown Telegram is a good paper, but it has no monopoly in the field of journalistic enterprise.

"There can be no doubt," says Archbishop Ireland, "that the active co-operation of the Vatican is now assured to the American government in its task of pacification in the Philippines, and that in the results the administration at Washington will have ample reason to felicitate itself for having sent Governor Taft to Rome." Such an expression as this from such a source ought to quiet insurgent antis who have been predicting no end of trouble between church and state.

If the present Boxer uprising in China reaches such proportions that the great powers have to interfere to protect their interests and their subjects, as they did only two years ago, the world will lose patience and Chinese autonomy will be doomed. The Chinese must govern China, or they will forfeit the right to national existence.

The railroads, remarks a contemporary, have all the business they can handle. Delayed freight and wrecked trains seem to suggest that some of them have considerably more business than they can handle advantageously and successfully.

Cuba has been a republic but a few weeks, and it has developed an army of politicians and office seekers strong enough to annoy and perplex the president just as much as they do in older and bigger nations.

A Lancaster woman is trying to cure herself of dropsy by fasting. If the cure is continued long enough there is no doubt that it will be effective.

Bryan has no mercy on the boasters. If he keeps up his insurgent tactics he will soon find that he is in that class himself.

May Yohe will not prosecute the man who stole her jewels. She has already got more than their worth in advertising.

Fitzsimmons, like Bryan, seems to have joined the great army of "has-beens."

Cincinnati and Chicago expect soon to be connected by a trolley line.

Lisbon, July 26.—The Thomas China company is experiencing an unusually brisk trade just at this season, and every department of the plant is in full operation. Orders seem to be coming in at a rapid rate, and the employees of the shop are more than pleased to learn it.

Owing to the present rush of business, the kilnmen have been compelled to work at nights in order that the firm might in some instances catch up with orders.

Charles Green, a dipper from the Chelsea at New Cumberland, has been here for about a week, helping out in the dipping house.

News of the serious illness of Richey-Berson, a kilnman at the Thomas plant, at his home near Rogers, has been received by regret by his many friends about the pottery. His condition is said to be very low as a result of typhoid fever, with which he has been suffering since July 3.

While the decorating department is working very good at present it seems that many of the orders for decorated ware are for decalcomania. The company is presenting some very handsome designs in this class of ware at present.

The Cone Fire Clay company, of this city, which formerly operated a chimney-top factory at Salineville, and which removed its moulds and other materials in this city, now occupying a part of the building owned by the East Liverpool Sagger company, has been unable to commence the work of making its line of goods on account of the non-arrival of clay of the particular kind that has been in use by the company for several years. The company has been waiting for three weeks for a sufficient amount of clay to commence with, but not a carload had arrived, although the clay is found in large quantities near Salineville. A few weeks ago a cave-in occurred at this mine, and the operators dug another entry to the mine, and it is thought by those interested in the chimney top company that they will be able to start operations within the next two weeks.

Kilnmen's local No. 9, at a meeting which lasted until after 11 o'clock last evening, heard a report of the committee that has been holding joint conferences with a committee representing the manufacturers' association relative to the placing of flat ware in the first ring in the biscuit kilns. After the report of the work one application for membership was received and Claude C. Smith, who withdrew from the local several meetings ago, was placed on the honorary list.

Within the past three days National Secretary T. J. Duffy has issued charters to two new locals, one in Trenton and one in Zanesville. One went to Trenton printers and will be known as No. 34. The local recently reorganized at Zanesville will be known as No. 39 and its membership is quite large.

Another session of the joint committee representing the kilnmen and the manufacturers' association will be held this evening in the rooms of the Potters' club for the purpose of further considering the question brought up by the kilnmen to refrain from placing flat biscuit in the first ring in the kiln.

The Oliver China company, of Sebring, are building another decorating kiln to their already large factory, making it a nine-kiln plant.

The Standard fire brick plant, Empire, is running full since the completion of repairs. The plant is now under the management of Captain John Porter, of Congo. Captain Porter now superintends the Globe, at New Cumberland, Standard at Empire, and a plant at Irondale.

President A. S. Hughes, who has been in Akron for several days, has returned to headquarters. He stated that his visit to that town was to look into some detail matters and that his trip had no special significance attached to it.

The plan of rebuilding the old end of the K. T. & K. pottery has been changed. Instead of a two-story brick it will be three-story on Walnut and four story on the railroad alley, making a more pretentious building.

"Hap" Rearn, who for years operated the saucer jigger in the old end, is now located at the Thompson plant. Next Monday he expects to go to the Dresden, and it may be that he will remain at the Dresden.

The Faleme Pottery company, of Faleme, O., capital $10,000, and the Faleme pottery, Zanesville, capital $10,000, are two new pottery incorporations.

Packers' local No. 25, at a session last evening, transacted routine business. A transfer card from Earl Cochran, from the Sebring local, was accepted.

The East Ohio sewer pipe works, of Irondale, started to make brick yesterday, and will use them in the erection of more new kilns.

A permit has been issued at Trenton for the erection of a $45,000 addition to the Maddock pottery.

John Sant left for Zanesville today on a visit to the potteries of that city, Roseville and Crooksville.

Gamble & Surles have the contract for erecting a new biscuit kiln for the Akron China company.

Ambrose Massey, boss dipper at the Murphy pottery, is home from an outing at Atlantic City.

Kilndrawers' local No. 17 will hold a session this evening in Brotherhood hall.

Another jigger was started at the Murphy pottery yesterday.

EVICTIONS COMMENCE MONDAY.

Notice Posted in Kanawha and New River Fields—Hearing to Commence Today.

Charleston, W. Va., July 26.—Charleston was crowded with strikers from Loup creek, who were here to attend the trial of President Richards and others, who were charged with having violated the injunctions issued by Federal Judge Keller, some time ago. The trial was to have commenced yesterday, but a wreck on the Norfolk and Western railroad prevented Judge Keller reaching here. His delayed the hearing until today.

Affairs in the coal district were quiet yesterday. Second in interest to the trial of Richards and his associates was the eviction of strikers occupying company houses, which was to commence next Monday. This notice was posted yesterday at all mines in the Kanawha and New River fields: "All persons desiring to work in the mines at the same prices and under conditions prevailing June 7, 1902, must report to the mine boss ready for work Monday morning, July 28. All persons who refuse to work on that day must call at the office, settle their accounts, get their pay. If anything is due them, and quit the respective companies' premises."

The operators decided to take this action simultaneously.

NEGROES WERE LEAVING SECTION

Third Negro Followed by Mob and Shot, South of Elkins, West Virginia.

Womelsdorff, W. Va., July 26.—Besides the two negroes lynched here Thursday for murdering Policeman Wilmot, Woodman, a third negro, was followed by a mob and shot to death in the swamps, 25 miles south of Elkins, yesterday. After riddling his body, the mob threw it into the Cheat river. Negroes were leaving this section.

WELLSVILLE

SCAFFOLD FELL

AND BANKER SILVER WAS BURIED BENEATH IT.

COULD HARDLY STAND WHEN TAKEN OUT
AND WAS BRUISED FROM HEAD TO FOOT.

Thomas H. Silver, president of the Silver Banking company and the Champion brick works, now building near Wellsville, was badly hurt at the latter place yesterday afternoon. Mr. Silver was on a tour of inspection around the factory when a careless workman caused a large scaffold to fall upon the banker, knocking him down and burying him beneath the debris.

When he was finally taken from the damaged scaffolding, Mr. Silver could scarcely walk and his body is bruised from head to foot. He will not be able to attend to business for several days.

The scaffolding which caused the damage was not finished, and the laborer who attempted to walk on the timber was not aware of this fact.

Will Use Ox Teams.

John H. McCord, who owns extensive timber lands back of the city, will hereafter employ oxen instead of horses to haul logs and do other work for which he has been using horses. He recently purchased three yokes of oxen while on a trip into the interior of West Virginia. In that part of the country, where the lumber business has reached enormous proportions, oxen are preferred to horses in many ways.

Preparing to Pave.

Repairs preparatory to paving Coal street are now in progress, a number of workmen being engaged there. Surveyors are taking the proper levels, and it is expected to begin work by the first of next week. Contractor Rinehart has all the brick needed to pave Coal street along its entire length.

In Total Darkness.

Owing to an accident to some of the machinery at the electric light plant, all the incandescent lamps in the city were out for about 10 minutes last night.

WELLSVILLE SHORT STORIES.

Mrs. Oscar Gordon is at the home of her father-in-law near Bergholz.

Frank Irwin, wife and two daughters, of Commerce street, are visiting in Grove City, Pa.

Clarence Smith, of Main street, is sick with typhoid fever, and his case is pronounced a serious one.

The little daughter of Vannis Cornelius, of Main street, is sick and the services of a physician are required.

Efforts on the part of friends to secure the release of Miss May Wrett, imprisoned for uttering forged paper have as yet proved of no avail.

Word is eagerly awaited from Mrs. C. E. Clark, wife of the pastor of the M. E. church. Mr. Clark left last week for Saranac Lake, N. Y., where his wife was reported dangerously ill.

Oscar Middleton and Frank Heime, train hoppers in ordinary, were fined $1 and costs each by Mayor Fogo. If their fines are not raised soon they may ride on a passenger train to Canton.

An elderly man, a stranger, wearing two overcoats in addition to a good supply of summer wearing apparel, was the sight witnessed by scores of people around the C. & P. station yesterday.

Regular services, morning and evening, will be held at the Episcopal church Sunday. At the morning service the lay reader, Mr. Morris, will occupy the pulpit, while Rector J. H. Edwards will officiate in the evening.

THE CHAMPION WON.

KNOCKED OUT FITZSIMMONS IN EIGHTH ROUND.

Jeffries Punished So Severely That Spectators Had Concluded Cornishman Would Win.

San Francisco, July 26.—After fighting a battle of eight rounds that was fraught with brilliant and courageous work, Robert Fitzsimmons last night forfeited his last claim upon the heavyweight championship. He was knocked to the floor by James Jeffries and counted out after he had so badly punished the champion that it was a foregone conclusion among the spectators that the Cornishman must win. Bleeding from a number of gashes in the face, apparently weakening, and clearly unable to cope with Fitzsimmons' superior skill, Jeffries delivered two lucky punches as Fitzsimmons paused in his fighting to speak to him, and turned the tide.

The final round was as follows:

Eight Round — Bob stood up straight, feinting with his left and drawing Jeffries on. Jeffries smiled through his bloody features, ducking a left swing and landing a hard left on the ribs. They went at it, Fitzsimmons putting left on face and took one on the head. Fitzsimmons missed a right and took a stiff punch on the body. Jeffries forced the fighting at this stage, crouching low and carrying his right high and left far back. They came together and clinched. As Fitzsimmons stepped back he smiled and spoke to Jeffries, and before he could get out of reach Jeffries quickly hooked his left to stomach, followed by left to jaw, and Fitzsimmons went down on his back. He came up slowly, but before he could get upon both feet the referee counted 10 and the fight was over.

WARS COST VAST SUM.

But Hicks-Beach Said England Borrowed on Easy Terms.

London, July 26.—Sir Michael Hicks-Beach was the guest last evening of the lord mayor and city bankers and merchants at a farewell dinner at the Mansion house. In an address dealing with national finance, the chancellor said that the Chinese and South African wars had cost Great Britain £228,000,000, of which amount the taxpayers have already willingly contributed £75,000,000.

The expenditure has been borne without serious injury to commerce, and £150,000,000 had been borrowed on easy terms, which Great Britain's continental neighbors envied, but could not imitate. Next year, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach said, he looked for a remission of taxation, and he warned his hearers against the constant growth of national expenditure, urging that preparations ought to be made for a day of adversity, and that the revenue, though increasing, should not be impaired in times of peace.

SOME TRI-STATE EVENTS.

None of the men charged by District Attorney Charles E. Mehard with criminal negligence in connection with the Fourth of July wreck on the Lowell electric line at Edinburg, Pa., can be found by the Lawrence county officers.

The corner stone of the new $125,000 court house at Elkins, W. Va., was laid by the officers of the grand lodge of West Virginia, Grand Master Peter R. Harrison, of Martinsburg, officiating. Colonel Robert White, of Wheeling, was orator.

A FATAL MISTAKE

Is Often Made by the Wisest of East Liverpool People.
It's a fatal mistake to neglect backache.

Backache is the first symptom of kidney ills.

Serious complications follow.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them promptly.

Don't delay until too late.

Until it becomes Diabetes—Bright's Disease.

Read what an East Liverpool citizen says:

Mrs. Mary Hewitt, of St. George street, says: "I read in the Pittsburgh Press an account of some one who had been cured of kidney complaint in that city by using Doan's Kidney Pills. The fact of such an account being published of one living in almost the same place had a tendency to convince me that there must be some truth in it, and I determined to try them myself. Some years before this I had a severe attack of rheumatism; for three months I lay helpless, and after that I had trouble with my kidneys. For a year I suffered severely. My back was so bad that it felt as if I had a boil where the kidneys are. I could not bend, lean back against a chair or reach up. I could lie on my back and about every move I made caused pain. I had taken numerous remedies, but none brought the desired relief. Well, Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the W. & W. pharmacy, did what no other remedy was able to do. I took them regularly for a short time and found them to be all that the Pittsburgh paper states them to be. I can heartily recommend them. After using them I was rid of backache and all other symptoms of kidney trouble.

Sold for 50 cents a box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Sold by W. & W. pharmacy.

This Should Interest All Who Are Not Well.

An Alarming Case of Catarrh of Stomach Permanently Cured.

Mr. Frederick Dubaugh, of New Philadelphia, Ohio, writes:

Life Plant Co.

Messrs.—I was attacked last August with a very serious and painful form of stomach trouble which gave me no rest by day and very little sleep at night. I used numerous remedies without any beneficial results. I was in constant misery with pain in stomach, which was increased, even by a slight pressure. For months I could not take any kind of food without suffering severe pain. This condition continued until I commenced the use of LIFE PLANT. I have taken six bottles and am now a well man, can do a full day's work, eat all kinds of food and feel no inconvenience. Yours, etc.

KENT CAME NEAR BEING SHUT OUT

A Three-Base Hit by Bracken Saved the Day for the Visitors.

MALEY ABLE TO FOOL THEM

The Youngster's Clever Performances.
Fred Heckathorn Gaining New Laurels—Visitors Had Up-Hill Work And Made But Two Runs.

That three base hit made by Bracken in the eighth inning saved Kent from the humiliation of a shutout in Friday's game. He did it so unexpectedly, too. Not having shown ability with the stick he created quite a stir when he landed so forcibly on the little sphere. At that Kent would have had its hands full in scoring had a few of the weeds in center field been chopped during the past year.

When Coleman went fishing for the ball it took him considerable more time to clear away the weeds than it did to get where the ball was. In Thursday's game he was lost completely from view when he made a dive down into the underbrush. Had he jumped up with the ball in his hand and claimed that he caught it no one could have disputed the fact.

Bob Webb's error played a strong part also in giving the visitors one of their runs. He got little excited and tried to throw the ball away after Bracken had reached third. He says he won't ever do the thing again, and considering the fact that he has done so well of late he will be excused this time.

The most amusing part of the game was Maley's pitching. It is not because he struck so many out, but rather the way he did it. The ball that he throws one can ever judge. At one time it will be slow. That is the sort that fools them the worst. They generally play it for a home run and lay down their hands credited with being struck out. The swift ball is the other kind that he uses. Just at the time that they expect a slow one, over shoots the cannon ball and they fall before it in a like manner. The youngster has got so used to watching them bite that he seldom smiles after one has turned a few somersaults in a vain attempt to smash the ball.

If Fred Heckathorn is ever removed permanently from first base it will be all off with base ball in the Crocker City. Many people have stated that they went to the games to see Godwin or some other real fancy player exhibit, but it is duffers to doughnuts that the great throng goes for the one purpose of seeing Big Heck perform. Hopping around on one stilt he certainly does some elegant stunts. And that original way of his that he uses after seizing the ball. Did you ever notice the underhanded shoot he gives the ball and always at the same time looking in another direction? He is becoming the choice of the ladies more and more every day.

It is the opinion of the fans that Gibson had better be retained. His work in the past two games has at least fixed him O. K. for the rest of the season. Coleman will not be deserted, either. He has a perfect wing and makes handsome catches.

In the first inning the locals started the game in a manner that was encouraging. By some clever base running and a hit registered by Webb they managed to blow the dust from the plate upon two occasions. For two more innings they were rather quiet, and did nothing but go out in order. In the fourth they got in the wagon again and continued to ride until the sixth when they again fell out and were satisfied to walk during the remainder of the game.

The visitors started their lucky inning with Livingston to first on a dead ball. The next two men up went out the first on a grounder to third and the second on a fly to Emmerling. Bracken saved the day with his awful lick. It may be that they were deserving of the couple for their hard work, but it was real grinding to see them prevent a shutout in the manner adopted.

Equipment Ordered For Limited and 20-Hour Train.

Chicago, July 26.—The management of the Pennsylvania railroad decided to provide new equipment throughout for the trains of the Pennsylvania limited and the Pennsylvania special. The latter is the new 20-hour train between Chicago and New York. The cost of the new equipment will be in the neighborhood of $1,300,000, and the order was being executed by the Pullman company.

Officials of the Pullman company have been given instructions to rush the work, and it was expected that the coaches will be ready for delivery in about eight weeks.

The order requires the building of 52 cars. For each service four trains will be provided. Only three of these are required for actual service, but a fourth train will be kept in reserve for emergencies.

GLASSES

FOR HEADACHE.

WHEN your head aches you almost invariably accuse your stomach of being at fault—you also almost invariably "dope" your stomach with one of the several hundred so called "best" headache cures—which for relief for the time being, are very well indeed. When you want positive discontinuance of the aches, however, look elsewhere than to your stomach—look to the condition of your eyes—some very grave troubles are found there. When the headaches comes from the eyes all the medicines you can put into your stomach from now until doomsday will not cure them—they need glasses. When they need glasses they will have glasses or they will continue to annoy you. If you accept good advice, however, you will not buy the glasses over a counter and do the fitting yourself. Glasses must be properly fitted or they are worse than useless—they are positively dangerous.

My time is at your disposal and examination costs you nothing.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Horse Taken Ill—A horse belonging to John Sterling fell in Apple alley while the owner was driving it through. After being unharnessed the animal was unable to regain its feet, and lay for some hours. The horse developed a bad case of sickness.

Fresh Vegetables Coming In—Garden truck is coming into the city in vast quantities and growing cheaper every day. Green corn is now 12½ cents per dozen and new potatoes at from 65 cents to 70 cents per bushel, and other truck at even cheaper rates.

Ball Player Ill—Edward Schlather, of the Kent base ball team, who came to the city to hold down first base for the visitors, was taken suddenly ill upon his arrival and this morning returned home, accompanied by J. G. Paxton, editor of the Kent Courier.

Expect to Buy Trotters—Michael O'Brien, bench boss at Laughlin No. 1 and Taylor, kilnman at Laughlin No. 2, are at Rush Run, O., where both will purchase thoroughbred trotters from a well known stockman. They expect to show East Liverpool two fast travelers upon their return.

Deserved Promotion—Ed L. McFarland, who for the past two years has been employed in the freight offices from Youngstown to this city, locating permanently with A. G. Hoffman, the Sixth street jeweler.

Mr. Kennedy is a young man with considerable experience in fitting glasses and comes here with excellent references.

Stone Throwers Fined—Three boys, Phil McCormick, Edward Prescott and Seth Nixon, were arraigned before Acting Mayor McLane last evening, charged with throwing stones at and breaking windows in Laughlin's pottery No. 3. They pleaded guilty and were each fined $1 and costs and given a scorching lecture.

An Enjoyable Reception—A pleasant reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cannon, of Sixth street, last evening in honor of Mrs. T. Stapleton, of New York; Mr. John Lillis and mother, of Baltimore, Md., and Miss Estelle Denning, of Ravenna, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cannon for several days. The affair was a most enjoyable one.

Comrades in the Civil War—John Rinehart, the Second street liveryman and Ross Rex, his guest from Salt Lake City, Utah, were happy in each other's company yesterday. Away back in the days of the civil war, '61 to '65, they were messmates in the old Fifty-Second O. V. L., known as "McCook's Avengers." They looked up old comrades of the Fifty-Second in Steubenville and Toronto, many of whom Mr. Rex has not seen since the regiment was mustered out. Mr. Rex, although a resident of Salt Lake City, where he owns many business interests, is also general manager of the Gold Dust Mining company, of Leesburg, Idaho, and has prospered wonderfully. He was born and raised at Richmond, Jefferson county, and will visit his old home while east.

19TH YEAR. NO. 175.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, JULY 26, 1902.

A BOLD THEFT IN DAYLIGHT

Robber Looted a Farm House and
Carried off the Farmer's
Wedding Suit.

OWNER HOTLY PURSUED HIM

The Thief Stopped, However, and
Donned the Stolen Wedding Garments.

SHOT AT BUT HE ESCAPED

There was a robbery at a farm house near Port Homer yesterday morning, and for a time the little town was thrown into a state of excitement. Who the robber was, where he came from, and where he is located now are questions the citizens would like answered, for it is believed that the individual is a member of the gang who have been located in the vicinity of Port Homer for many months, members of which are now thinking of their past acts in the "walled city" at Columbus.

Mrs. R. Glenn, who has been married but about three months, and whose maiden name was Hawthorn, daughter of William Hawthorn, one of the oldest and most prosperous farmers in Hancock county, went to Empire yesterday forenoon to visit with friends for a few hours. Mr. Glenn was working the fields during the morning, and had occasion to return to his home about 11 o'clock, just a few minutes too late to see the "goings on."

"Robbed!" exclaimed Mr. Glenn. He then made a hasty examination of his home, and to his surprise he found that the robber had taken everything in sight that he thought would be useful to him. He then made a list of the articles stolen, which were as follows: One new dark suit, the one he was married in; one watch, one revolver, minus the bullets; cash, $30.

Mr. Glenn then went to the river. A ferry boat was just landing at the West Virginia shore. He saw a man walking up the river bank just after the ferry had landed, carrying clothing and other articles which had been stolen. As soon as it was possible to do so, Glenn also went to West Virginia, landing at New Lexington, one of the new towns on the New Cumberland branch.

Up the river bank went Mr. Glenn. Into the house of John Barton in New Lexington went Mr. Robber. It was from this home that Mr. Glenn saw the robber emerge later. It seems that no one was about the house of Barton when the robber entered it, and there he changed his clothing, discarding his old clothes for the new wedding suit which was worn by Mr. Glenn when he was married, and one that was highly prized for this cause. That made Mr. Glenn more angry ever—just to think of a robber wear his wedding suit. Then Glenn went after the robber in wild western fashion. Glenn procured a revolver, and the aid of several friends was solicited and the chase commenced. Mr. Robber, who in the meantime had stolen a suit case, and packed his old clothes in it, was seen running up the road. "Bang, bang, bang," rang out the shots from Mr. Glenn's revolver.

"Take that," said the robber as he threw the revolver he had stolen from Glenn's house, back at Mr. Glenn.

"Well, what do you think of that?" said Glenn to his companions. "That fellow certainly has his nerve with him."

He certainly had, for he continued to chase up the road, across corn-fields, and wheat fields too, and finally managed to elude his pursuers. All this part of the occurrence took place on the Watson farm, and near the residence of Rev. Mr. Curfman, pastor of the M. P. chapel at Nessley, W. Va.

The robber is described as being of medium height, wearing a dark suit—the wedding suit owned by Mr. Glenn—a white shirt, a black and white dotted necktie, soft light cloth cap and red hair. All the farmers within 10 miles of Port Homer have been asked to look out for the individual, and his capture is expected soon. Mr. Glenn expects to recover his wedding suit.

AGREEMENT REACHED IN THE TAX CASES

ALL BUT TWO EAST LIVERPOOL FIRMS INCLUDED IN IT.

They Will Pay the Amount Demanded by County Auditor Adams.

Lisbon, July 26.—(Special)—The suits of the various East Liverpool pottery companies against Auditor J. F. Adams have all been settled with the exception of the William Brunt Pottery company and the D. E. McNicol Pottery company. The suit against Koch Bros. also remains unsettled. An agreement has been reached between the parties, and the cases will be dismissed next Monday.

In these cases the plaintiffs claim that they had returned a true valuation of their property for taxation and asked that the auditor be restrained from placing what they claim as an exorbitant valuation on the tax list. The cases have been settled by the plaintiffs agreeing to pay the taxes which the auditor claimed they should.

RESTRAINING ORDER

ASKED AGAINST THE TRENTON POTTERIES COMPANY.

Alleged That Its Capitalization Plans Would Violate the Charter.

Trenton, N. J., July 26.—William R. Willcox and the firm of Wood, Havemeyer & Kearny, of New York, began suit in the court of chancery yesterday to restrain the Trenton Potteries company from carrying into effect the plan of capitalizing all accumulated dividends on its preferred stock, amounting to $550,000, by issuing refunding certificates, and to set aside a certificate filed by the company July 1, changing the character of the preferred stock so that in future the dividends should be non-cumulative instead of cumulative. Mr. Willcox holds 104 shares of the preferred stock and Wood, Havemeyer & Kearny 800 shares of common stock.

The complainants allege that the proposition which was ratified by holders of $1,034,800 of preferred stock and $1,412,800 of common stock out of a total stock issue of $2,457,000, is in violation of their charter rights and, therefore, illegal.

They contend that the provision in the charter that the preferred stock shall bear cumulative dividends is a contract which can only be admitted by the express consent of every stockholder, and assert that the earning capacity of the company is sufficient to pay the cumulative dividends, and that there are at the present time surplus earnings which could and should be applied to liquidating the arrears of the cumulative dividends.

He sank twice and was rescued just as he was going down the third time by Wren Ritts, a helper, who is employed on the coal floats. The lad has made up his mind to stay away from the river hereafter.

WOOLLEY IN TOWN

Youth Wanted By Police Reported to Have Been Seen Today.

Word reached police headquarters this afternoon that Woolley, the young man alleged to have been a partner with Robert Cooley and Charles Hutton, who now languish in the county jail awaiting the action of the grand jury, and charged with attempting to rob Homer Fairbanks, of West Market, has been in town several days and was seen this morning.

FALSE PRETENSE WAS THE CHARGE

James B. O'Neil Arrested For Alleged Shady Business Transactions.

HE HAD ORDERED PRODUCE SUIT FILED TO TAKE LAND

And It Is Claimed He Named as the Customer a Man Who Knew Nothing of the Matter—How Suspicion Was Aroused.

With the serious charge of obtaining goods under false pretense against him, James B. O'Neil, late of Cleveland, was arraigned before the mayor this morning and pleaded not guilty. He was arrested by Officer Woods at the instance of William Pastorius, manager of a wholesale produce house of Cleveland, which has been doing business in the city, with headquarters on the Horn switch.

Mr. Pastorius states that O'Neil has been doing considerable business with him, but that he has nevertheless been a little suspicious of the man's actions. Upon several occasions he states O'Neil has been given produce amounting to about $20, a man by the name of Lyons standing good for the payment.

Lyons is as good as gold, and he never feared for the money as long as that gentleman gave the order. But on yesterday morning when O'Neil appeared and stated that Lyons had sent him after 20 bushels of potatoes and four baskets of cucumbers, he doubted the truth of the story. After submitting the goods he made inquiry. He found that Lyons had never given authority for the purchase. Another fact upon which Pastorius bases guilt is that after buying produce at 50 cents a bushel O'Neil went not a block from the car and sold it for the same price. Both men have a number of witnesses. The case will come up for trial this afternoon.

A LOST BROOCH LEADS TO SUIT

PECULIAR CASE IN THE COURT OF JUSTICE McCARRON.

According to Report the Pin Has Traveled Much Since It Was Lost.

An action has been brought in Squire H. P. McCarron's court by Miss Ida Allison, of Second street, for the recovery, from Miss Eva Morrow, of a star-shaped, gold-plated brooch, valued at $5 which she lost on the streets the other evening.

The circumstances are out of the ordinary. Miss Allison was out walking with the brooch pinned to her shirt waist and did not notice that it was gone until the following day. She instituted a search for it, but for several days was unsuccessful.

While on the street at another time she happened to meet the Morrow lady and says she was very much pleased at seeing the coveted brooch on Miss Morrow, who said that James Butler had found it and given it to her. She immediately claimed the pin, but rather than embarrass the lady by taking it on the street, told her she might delay the giving until the next day. On the next day at the appointed time Miss Allison went after her jewelry, but met disappointment.

Miss Morrow, she says, had given it away. The defendant stated to the squire that she gave the pin to E. Wilson, of Chester, and that he in turn gave it to a woman in Allegheny. The question whether or not Miss Morrow shall be compelled to return the brooch or its value will be determined Monday evening.

Brakeman Lost a Leg.

Mingo Junction, July 26.—(Special)—A brakeman named Jones, who lately came from the B. & O., and entered the service of the W. & L. E. railway, while employed on the shifter in the National Steel company's yards last night at 1 o'clock, was ran over by one of the hot metal cars and had a leg cut off. He was taken to the King's Daughters' hospital, Steubenville.

Appointed Administrator.

Lisbon, July 26.—(Special)—Emma A. Bott has been appointed administratrix of the estate of Thomas Bott, East Liverpool. John J. Donnelly has been appointed administrator of the estate of Mary Walt, Butler township.

STOLE A MARCH ON THE C. & P.

Wabash Seems to Have Distanced Its Rival in a Race For Rights.

OLD TIN MILL PLANT WILL SOON BE A BUSY PLACE.

In Steubenville, claiming the Pennsylvania Did Not Proceed According to Law in Its Steps to Secure the Coveted Tract.

Steubenville, July 26.—The real fight for the possession of land is now on between the C. & P. and Steubenville-Toronto railway, and from surface indications the Wabash has the best of the fight, as a slick movement upon the part of the Steubenville-Toronto railway, which is simply an extension of the Wabash, made last Thursday night, has given it an advantage over the C. & P. that will be hard to over come, if indeed it can be done.

As is well known the C. & P. is doing everything possible to prevent the Wabash from reaching Toronto. Some time ago the Wabash commenced suit to appropriate property belonging to the Turnbull estate from Logan street north along the river bank between the C. & P. low water mark to the line of the Hartie paper mill property. A few days later the C. & P. railroad company commenced suit to appropriate the river front from the line of the Turnbull estate to the intersection of LaBelle avenue and Fourth street near the Panhandle bridge.

The defendants named in the petition were Richard and August Hartie and their wives, Edward G. Hartie, Mary C. Delafield and husband, D. J. Sinclair and John W. Cookson. It now seems, or at least the Wabash attorneys claim so, that the C. & P. failed to have a summons issued, and to file an affidavit for publication as is necessary when the defendants are non-residents. This oversight would leave the case out of court.

The Wabash watched every movement of the C. & P., and in the probate court, the company filed a suit against Hartie Bros., an other wives, Mary C. Delafield et al., and the city of Steubenville, to appropriate all the land along the river front, east of the C. & P. from the line of the Turnbull estate to the end of Fourth street, the very property which the C. & P. sought to appropriate in its petition filed ten days ago.

In its petition the Wabash company alleges that in order to properly operate its railroad and properly serve the interests of the public it is necessary to construct its road along the property, and for the construction of such track it has become necessary for it to acquire title to the land sought to be appropriated. The land is then described at length, and is all the ground east of the present C. & P. tracks in front of the Hartie paper mills and La Belle avenue. The petition states the company has been unable to agree with the owners of the land as to the compensation to be paid.

The case will probably cause many legal entanglements as the Wabash people have already issued their summons and had them served, and also filed the affidavit for publication, which it is claimed the C. & P. has not done, and therefore the Wabash case should take precedence in their final disposition. Had the C. & P. secured the land, it would have resulted in much trouble for the Wabash, and might delay the giving until the next day. On the next day at the appointed time Miss Allison went after her jewelry, but met disappointment.

HEATHENISH CRUELTY

A Third Street Woman Accused of Beating Children Till They Can Stand.

On Third street there lives a woman who has iron bars staring her in the face. Her neighbors say she is beyond a doubt one of the most heathenish beings in existence and are up in arms. For the past month the woman in question has made her home a veritable hades. She is the mother of two bright little children, the oldest being but four years. From morning until late at night, it is stated, that she takes a fiendish delight in torturing her innocent offspring. She uses several methods, but generally the rod is brought to play.

One of the neighbors states that she pounds the children until the cannot stand, and that she has even gone so far as to resort to the slavery day plan, that of sprinkling salt in the openings made in the flesh by a whip. The neighbor also states that only last evening the woman beat the older child unmercifully with a huge club. Public indignation is so greatly aroused that the woman stands an excellent show to receive some of the medicine she has been administering if she does not mend her ways.

NEW INDUSTRY AT IRONDALE

OLD TIN MILL PLANT WILL SOON BE A BUSY PLACE.

It Will be Converted Into Tile Roofing Works And Extensively Operated.

Irondale, July 26.—(Special)—Irondale is to have a big and important new industry. Pittsburg and Steubenville capitalists, headed by Fred Owesney, of the latter city, and who is also interested in the East Ohio sewer pipe plant of Irondale, have leased the site and old building of the old tin mill plant, and will start immediately to convert it into a plant for manufacturing tile roofing. This roofing has been tested in many of the large cities and is coming into great demand.

The plant will also be equipped with all the necessary machinery, and will employ quite force to operate it.

The clay for the manufacture of the tile is found in abundant quantities in the vicinity where the plant will be located. There are many features left of the old tin mill that can be used effectively in the operations of the tile plant.

The parties closed the lease for the tin mill property yesterday.

MRS. KNOWLES IS ILL

And the Remains of Her Husband Will Not Be Sent Home Till Next Week.

Messages were received at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Levy, of Fifth street, early yesterday evening, announcing the illness of Mrs. Isaac W. Knowles, at the home of her son, Willis Knowles, at El Monte, Cal. The message also stated that owing to this illness of Mrs. Knowles the body of Mr. Knowles would not leave California for East Liverpool until next Monday, and that its arrival in this city was not expected until next Friday morning, either on the early Cleveland express from Rochester or upon the train due here at 10:00 o'clock.

In its petition the Wabash company alleges that in order to properly operate its railroad and properly serve the interests of the public it is necessary to construct its road along the property, and for the construction of such track it has become necessary for it to acquire title to the land sought to be appropriated. The land is then described at length, and is all the ground east of the present C. & P. tracks in front of the Hartie paper mills and La Belle avenue. The petition states the company has been unable to agree with the owners of the land as to the compensation to be paid.

Not until the arrival of the body of Mr. Knowles and of those who accompany it will the arrangements for the funeral be completed.

WHERE THE $300 GOES

Bestowal of Gifts By an Enterprising Firm—A Store to Be Proud Of.

The Hard Furniture company's new and palatial quarters on Fifth street have been thronged with visitors and customers during the past few days and the opening has been a pronounced success in every particular. A more attractive store or one better stocked on all of the three floors of the big new building cannot be found in any city. East Liverpool may well be proud of such an establishment, and the enterprising gentlemen at the head of it deserve the congratulations they have been receiving.

The company celebrated its opening by generously donating to churches and charities $300 of its receipts. The list of the fortunate recipients will be found in another column. Such liberality merits the success that is bound to come to the firm.

Disputed Board Bill.

Abraham Slaughter was the defendant and Mrs. Martha Hanlon the prosecutor in an interesting case tried before Squire McLane yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Hanlon sued for $16 on a board bill. He claimed he did not owe the whole amount, but that Mrs. Hanlon had charged him for the board of a girl who acted as his nurse. Decision reserved.

No sooner had the bridge been finished than the commissioner and his men went to High street and began to make a number of improvements there.

HOW THE YOUNG MAN CAN FIGHT TEMPTATION

Rev. Patrick Farrell, a native of this city, and a graduate of the East Liverpool high schools, is now pastor of St. John's Cathedral at Cleveland. He has numerous relatives and friends in the city. He recently attended the banquet of the alumni association held at Rock Springs park. The Cleveland Press a few days ago published the following from the pen of Father Farrell, together with the cut herewith reproduced. The article is headed "Dangers to Young Men," the theme being "Young man, I say to thee arise."

"Pathetic is the incident in the life of Christ where he raises to life the son of the widow of Nain. We are touched by the tears of the sorrowing mother, by the compassion of the sacred heart of Jesus Christ, by the wonderful resuscitation of the young man. He who worked that miracle was likewise an only son. To his mind, on that day, there must have come in prophetic vision the sight of his own mother, Mary, mourning over the loss of her only-begotten, whom men had crucified and put to death.

"Christ speaks to the youth of Cleveland. Young man, I say to thee, ARISE. There is in this world today, many a mother mourning over her son, over the loss of one dear to her, a loss that comes not from material death, but from those sins which kill the soul and bring ruin and disgrace. Many a pious mother prays to Jesus to bring back her poor prodigal to a higher and nobler life. Death is not the greatest slave? Is it he who walks forth with bright eye, clear brain, happy and cheerful heart, with a pleasant word for everyone, with peace in his soul toward God and man? Or is it he who cannot control his mauldin steps, whose bloodshot eye is the sign of a disordered brain, who stretches forth his nervous hand to grasp the fatal cup for which he has sold his birthright and his reason? Who is the slave? Is it not he upon whose mind impurity has seized, whose heart is consumed with the passion of lust, whose very being, body and soul, is corrupted by wild concupiscence? The mark of sin is stamped upon his brow, the wages of sin he must sooner or later pay in the destruction threatened by the Lord upon all who violate the temple of the living God.

"Shame on you, if you make yourself like unto the beasts of the field!

"I have seen the strong man after one disgraceful fall, with his face in the dust of the earth, his soul overwhelmed with grief, tears of shame coursing down his cheeks, almost afraid to sit alone with his conscience because he has forgotten the dignity of his manhood and has inflicted on his own self-respect an incurable wound.

"If you have fallen, arise. Tell me not that the custom of the world justifies you, that the scarlet letter is stamped upon the breast of the most of your companions. In your better moments, that will not be a satisfactory justification. It will not take away the bitterness that belongs to the dregs of the cup of pleasure. Let no mother weep for you, no inconsolable Rachel raise that lament so often heard in these evil days: "O would that he had died in his days of innocent childhood, rather than he should bring sorrow to my heart and disgrace upon my gray hairs!"

"Remember thy creator in the days of thy youth." Self-respect is a weak safeguard without religion. God's grace must aid you. No man is truly educated whose will has not been trained to virtue. Morality is above science, goodness is above brilliancy. There is strong temptation; it must be counteracted by a mere powerful curb, that of God's law; by a more powerful attraction, that of the higher life, here and hereafter. There is danger everywhere; religion alone will point out the right path. With the help of God, with your own earnest effort, build up your character, have self-respect, arise!

"This above all: to thine own self be true, And it must follow, as the night the day, Thou canst not then be false to any man."

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, men—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous effort to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get this reliable remedy at Charles F. Craig's. Get Green's special almanac.

FOR SYSTEMIC CATARRH

Peculiar to Summer Pe-ru-na Gives Prompt and Permanent Relief.

Clem G. Moore, Editor of the Advocate-Democrat of Crawfordsville, Ga., writes the Peruna Medicine Company as follows:

Gentlemen—After four years of intense suffering, caused by systemic catarrh, which I contracted while editing, and traveling for my paper, I have been greatly relieved by the use of Peruna. I gave up work during these years of torture, tried various remedies and many doctors, but all the permanent relief came from the use of Peruna. My trouble was called Indigestion, but it was catarrh all through my system, and a few bottles of Peruna made me feel like another person, noting the improvement after I had used the first bottle. Peruna is undoubtedly the best catarrh remedy ever compounded.—CLEM G. MOORE.

Judge Wm. T. Zenor, of Washington, D. C., writes from 213 N. Capital Street, Washington, D. C.:

"I take pleasure in saying that I can cheerfully recommend the use of Peruna as a remedy for catarrhal trouble and a most excellent tonic for general conditions."—Wm. T. Zenor.

Mrs. Amanda Morrill, 136 Reid street, Elizabeth, N. J., writes:

"I have been sick over two years with nervous prostration and general debility, and heart trouble. Have had four doctors; all said that I could not get well. I had not walked a step in nine months, suffering with partial paralysis and palpitation of the heart every other day, and had become so reduced in flesh as to be a mere skeleton weighing only 85 pounds.

"Up to this date I have taken Peruna for seven months. It has saved my life.

as I can safely testify. I have not felt so well in five years, having walked over one mile without ill result, and have also gained thirty pounds since commencing to take Peruna. In fact, I cannot praise it too highly."—Mrs. Amanda Morrill.

Peruna never fails to prevent systemic catarrh or nervous prostration if taken in time. Peruna is the most prompt and permanent cure for all cases of nervous prostration caused by systemic catarrh known to the medical profession.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

In their work at Salem by the nomination of James Kennedy, of Youngstown, for congress, the Republicans of the Eighteenth district, not only proved good judgment in the selection of a man, but likewise gave a pleasing exhibition of fair political play. There was no question in the minds of any one as to Mahoning county being entitled to the nomination, says an editorial in the Toledo Blade. The article speaks of the defeated candidates publicly pledging support to the successful one and further commends the work of the convention as follows: "There was no sulking in the tent, nor laying down of arms. Every man went away convinced that the convention had done the best thing that it could, and moreover had played fair. It demonstrated that after all, men in politics, as in anything else, really believe in justice, and that underneath all the bitterness and contest there is latent desire to do the right thing. A better and more capable man than Kennedy could not have been chosen. He is a man of splendid ability, a lawyer of distinction, a political orator, and a leader in the political and business world of Youngstown, Mahoning county and the district. He will be a worthy successor of Congressman Taylor, and the other great men who have preceded him."

Judge Phillips, of the common pleas court at Cleveland, has come to a wise and commendable decision regarding the naturalization of aliens. He says that hereafter he will issue naturalization papers to no man who fails to answer plain questions he may ask with respect to our form of government and the constitution. He says he believes that persons who desire to become citizens should be qualified to vote intelligently, not only to protect their own interests, but those of their fellow citizens as well. It would be well if the precepts of this judge were followed everywhere. We ought not, for our own protection, to increase unnecessarily the number of illiterate and ignorant voters.

The Youngstown Telegram is enterprising, as everybody admits; when its boasts that it was the only newspaper represented at the Salem convention by two staff correspondents, the statement cannot pass unchallenged. The News Review was represented at the convention by three members of its own staff, to say nothing of the liberal assistance rendered by the Salem Daily News force, and its reports were the fullest and most accurate that were published in Ohio or elsewhere. The Youngstown Telegram is a good paper, but it has no monopoly in the field of journalistic enterprise.

"There can be no doubt," says Archbishop Ireland, "that the active co-operation of the Vatican is now assured to the American government in its task of pacification in the Philippines.

and that in the results the administration at Washington will have ample reason to felicitate itself for having sent Governor Taft to Rome." Such an expression as this from such a source ought to quiet insurgent antis who have been predicting no end of trouble between church and state.

If the present Boxer uprising in China reaches such proportions that the great powers have to interfere to protect their interests and their subjects, as they did only two years ago, the world will lose patience and Chinese autonomy will be doomed. The Chinese must govern China, or they will forfeit the right to national existence.

The railroads, remarks a contemporary, have all the business they can handle. Delayed freight and wrecked trains seem to suggest that some of them have considerably more business than they can handle advantageously and successfully.

Cuba has been a republic but a few weeks, and it has developed an army of politicians and office seekers strong enough to annoy and perplex the president just as much as they do in older and bigger nations.

A Lancaster woman is trying to cure herself of dropsy by fasting. If the cure is continued long enough there is no doubt that it will be effective.

Bryan has no mercy on the boasters. If he keeps up his insolent tactics he will soon find that he is in that class himself.

May Yohe will not prosecute the man who stole her jewels. She has already got more than their worth in advertising.

Fitzsimmons, like Bryan, seems to have joined the great army of "has beens."

Cincinnati and Chicago expect soon to be connected by a trolley line.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

[Special Correspondence.]

Lisbon, July 26.—The Thomas China company is experiencing an unusually brisk trade just at this season, and every department of the plant is in full operation. Orders seem to be coming in at a rapid rate, and the employees of the shop are more than pleased to learn it.

Owing to the present rush of business, the kilnmen have been compelled to work at nights in order that the firm might in some instances catch up with orders.

Charles Green, a dipper from the Chelsea at New Cumberland, has been here for about a week, helping out in the dipping house.

News of the serious illness of Richey Berson, a kilnman at the Thomas plant, at his home near Rogers, has been received by regret by his many friends about the pottery. His condition is said to be very low as a result of typhoid fever, with which he has been suffering since July 3.

While the decorating department is working very good at present it seems that many of the orders for decorated ware are for decalcomania. The company is presenting some very handsome designs in this class of ware at present.

The Cone Fire Clay company, of this city, which formerly operated a chimney top factory at Salineville, and which removed its moulds and other materials in this city, now occupying a part of the building owned by the East Liverpool Sagger company, has been unable to commence the work of making its line of goods on account of the non-arrival of clay of the particular kind that has been in use by the company for several years. The company has been waiting for three weeks for a sufficient amount of clay to commence with, but not a carload had arrived, although the clay is found in large quantities near Salineville. A few weeks ago a cave-in occurred at this mine, and the operators dug another entry to the mine, and it is thought by those interested in the chimney top company that they will be able to start operations within the next two weeks.

COULD HARDLY STAND WHEN TAKEN OUT AND WAS BRUISED FROM HEAD TO FOOT.

Thomas H. Silver, president of the Silver Banking company and the Champion brick works, now building near Wellsville, was badly hurt at the latter place yesterday afternoon. Mr. Silver was on a tour of inspection around the factory when a careless workman caused a large scaffold to fall upon the banker, knocking him down and burying him beneath the debris.

When he was finally taken from the damaged scaffolding, Mr. Silver could scarcely walk and his body is bruised from head to foot. He will not be able to attend to business for several days.

The scaffolding which caused the damage was not finished, and the laborer who attempted to walk on the timber was not aware of this fact.

WILL USE OX TEAMS.

John H. McCord, who owns extensive timber lands back of the city, will hereafter employ oxen instead of horses to haul logs and do other work for which he has been using horses. He recently purchased three yokes of oxen while on a trip into the interior of West Virginia. In that part of the country, where the lumber business has reached enormous proportions, oxen are preferred to horses in many ways.

PREPARING TO PAVE.

Repairs preparatory to paving Coal street are now in progress, a number of workmen being engaged there. Surveyors are taking the proper levels, and it is expected to begin work by the first of next week. Contractor Rinehart has all the brick needed to pave Coal street along its entire length.

IN TOTAL DARKNESS.

Owing to an accident to some of the machinery at the electric light plant, all the incandescent lamps in the city were out for about 10 minutes last night.

THE CHAMPION WON.

KNOCKED OUT FITZSIMMONS IN EIGHTH ROUND.

Jeffries Punished So Severely That Spectators Had Concluded Cornishman Would Win.

San Francisco, July 26.—After fighting a battle of eight rounds that was fraught with brilliant and courageous work, Robert Fitzsimmons last night forfeited his last claim upon the heavyweight championship. He was knocked to the floor by James Jeffries and counted out after he had so badly punished the champion that it was a foregone conclusion among the spectators that the Cornishman must win. Bleeding from a number of gashes in the face, apparently weakening, and clearly unable to cope with Fitzsimmons' superior skill, Jeffries delivered two lucky punches as Fitzsimmons paused in his fighting to speak to him, and turned the tide.

The final round was as follows:

Eighth Round — Bob stood up straight, feinting with his left and drawing Jeffries on. Jeffries smiled through his bloody features, ducking a left swing and landing a hard left on the ribs. They went at it, Fitzsimmons putting left on face and took one on the head. Fitzsimmons missed a right and took a stiff punch on the body. Jeffries forced the fighting at this stage, crouching low and carrying his right high and left far back. They came together and clinched. As Fitzsimmons stepped back he smiled and spoke to Jeffries, and before he could get out of reach Jeffries quickly hooked his left to stomach, followed by left to jaw, and Fitzsimmons went down on his back. He came up slowly, but before he could get upon both feet the referee counted 10 and the fight was over.

WARS COST VAST SUM.

But Hicks-Beach Said England Borrowed on Easy Terms.

London, July 26.—Sir Michael Hicks-Beach was the guest last evening of the lord mayor and city bankers and merchants at a farewell dinner at the Mansion house. In an address dealing with national finance, the chancellor said that the Chinese and South African wars had cost Great Britain £228,000,000, of which amount the taxpayers have already willingly contributed £75,000,000.

The expenditure has been borne without serious injury to commerce, and £150,000,000 had been borrowed on easy terms, which Great Britain's continental neighbors envied, but could not imitate. Next year, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach said, he looked for a remission of taxation, and he warned his hearers against the constant growth of national expenditure, urging that preparations ought to be made for a day of adversity, and that the revenue, though increasing, should not be impaired in times of peace.

SOME TRI-STATE EVENTS.

A FATAL MISTAKE

Is Often Made by the Wisest of East Liverpool People.

It's a fatal mistake to neglect backache.

Backache is the first symptom of kidney ills.

Serious complications follow.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them promptly.

Don't delay until too late.

Until it becomes Diabetes—Bright's Disease.

Read what an East Liverpool citizen says:

Mrs. Mary Hewitt, of St. George street, says: "I read in the Pittsburgh Press an account of some one who had been cured of kidney complaint in that city by using Doan's Kidney Pills. The fact of such an account being published of one living in almost the same place had a tendency to convince me that there must be some truth in it, and I determined to try them myself. Some years before this I had a severe attack of rheumatism; for three months I lay helpless, and after that I had trouble with my kidneys. For a year I suffered severely. My back was so bad that it felt as if I had a boil where the kidneys are. I could not bend, lean back against a chair or reach up. I could not lie on my back and about every move I made caused pain. I had taken numerous remedies, but none brought the desired relief. Well, Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the W. &amp; W. pharmacy, did what no other remedy was able to do. I took them regularly for a short time and found them to be all that the Pittsburgh paper states them to be. I can heartily recommend them. After using them I was rid of backache and all other symptoms of kidney trouble.

Sold for 50 cents a box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Sold by W. &amp; W. pharmacy.

LIFE PLANT contains no minerals or opiates, which stop the pain for a short time. It is purely vegetable, and when taken according to directions positively cures all diseases of the stomach, bowels, etc.

An Alarming Case of Catarrh of Stomach Permanently Cured.

Mr. Frederick Dubaugh, of New Philadelphia, Ohio, writes:

I was attacked last August with a very serious and painful form of stomach trouble which gave me no rest by day and very little sleep at night. I used numerous remedies without any beneficial results. I was in constant misery with pain in stomach, which was increased, even by a slight pressure. For months I could not take any kind of food without suffering severe pain. This condition continued until I commenced the use of LIFE PLANT. I have taken six bottles and am now a well man, can do a full day's work, eat all kinds of food, and feel no inconvenience. Yours, etc.

KENT CAME NEAR BEING SHUT OUT

▲ Three-Base Hit by Bracken Saved the Day For the Visitors.

MALEY ABLE TO FOOL THEM

The Youngster's Clever Performances. Fred Heckathorn Gaining New Laurels—Visitors Had Up-Hill Work And Made But Two Runs.

That three base hit made by Bracken in the eighth inning saved Kent the humiliation of a shutout in Friday's game. He did it so unexpectedly, too. Not having shown ability with the stick he created quite a stir when he landed so forcibly on the little sphere. At that Kent would have had its hands full in scoring had a few of the weeds in center field been chopped during the past year.

When Coleman went fishing for the ball it took him considerable more time to clear away the weeds than it did to get where the ball was. In Thursday's game he was lost completely from view when he made a dive down into the underbrush. Had he jumped up with the ball in his hand and claimed that he caught it no one could have disputed the fact.

Bib Webb's error played a strong part also in giving the visitors one of their runs. He got a little excited and tried to throw the ball away after Bracken had reached third. He says he won't ever do the thing again, and considering the fact that he has done so well of late he will be excused this time.

The most amusing part of the game was Maley's pitching. It is not because he struck so many out, but rather the way he did it. The ball that he throws one can ever judge. At one time it will be slow. That is the sort that fools them the worst. They generally play it for a home run and lay down their hands credited with being struck out. The swift ball is the other kind that he uses. Just at the time that they expect a slow one, over shoots the cannon ball and they fall before it in a like manner. The youngster has got so used to watching them bite that he seldom smiles after one has turned a few somersaults in a vain attempt to smash the ball.

If Fred Heckathorn is ever removed permanently from first base it will be all off with base ball in the Crookery City. Many people have stated that they went to the games to see Godwin or some other real fancy player exhibit, but it is dollars to doughnuts that the great throng goes for the one purpose of seeing Big Heck perform.

Hopping around on one still he certainly does some elegant stunts. And that original way of his that he uses after seizing the ball. Did you ever notice the underhanded shoot he gives the ball and always at the same time looking in another direction? He is becoming the choice of the ladies more and more every day.

It is the opinion of the fans that Gibson had better be retained. His work in the past two games has at least fixed him O. K. for the rest of the season. Coleman will not be deserted, either. He has a perfect wing and makes handsome catches.

In the first inning the locals started the game in a manner that was encouraging. By some clever base running and a hit registered by Webb they managed to blow the dust from the plate upon two occasions. For two more innings they were rather quiet.

and did nothing but go out in order. In the fourth they got in the wagon again and continued to ride until the sixth when they again fell out and were satisfied to walk during the remainder of the game.

The visitors started their lucky inning with Livingston to first on a dead ball. The next two men up went out, the first on a grounder to third and the second on a fly to Emmerling. Bracken saved the day with his awful kick. It may be that they were deserving of the couple for their hard work, but it was real grinding to see them prevent a shutout in the manner adopted.

FINE NEW PENNSY TRAINS.

Equipment Ordered For Limited and 20-Hour Train.

Chicago, July 26.—The management of the Pennsylvania railroad decided to provide new equipment throughout for the trains of the Pennsylvania Limited and the Pennsylvania special. The latter is the new 20-hour train between Chicago and New York. The cost of the new equipment will be in the neighborhood of $1,300,000, and the order was being executed by the Pullman company.

Officials of the Pullman company have been given instructions to rush the work, and it was expected that the coaches will be ready for delivery in about eight weeks.

The order requires the building of 52 cars. For each service four trains will be provided. Only three of these are required for actual service, but a fourth train will be kept in reserve for emergencies.

GLASSES FOR HEADACHE.

WHEN your head aches you almost invariably accuse your stomach of being at fault—you also almost invariably "dope" your stomach with one of the several hundred so called "best" headache cures—which for relief for the time being, are very well indeed. When you want positive discontinuance of the aches, however, look elsewhere than to your stomach—look to the condition of your eyes—some very grave troubles are found there. When the headaches comes from the eyes all the medicines you can put into your stomach from now until doomsday will not care them—they need glasses. When they need glasses they will have glasses or they will continue to annoy you. If you accept good advice, however, you will not buy the glasses over a counter and do the biting yourself. Glasses must be properly fitted or they are worse than useless—they are positively dangerous.

My time is at your disposal and examination costs you nothing.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Horse Taken Ill—A horse belonging to John Sterling fell in Apple alley while the owner was driving it through. After being unharnessed the animal was unable to regain its feet, and lay for some hours. The horse developed a bad case of sickness.

Fresh Vegetables Coming In—Garden truck is coming into the city in vast quantities and growing cheaper every day. Green corn is now 12½ cents per dozen and new potatoes at from 65 cents to 70 cents per bushel, and other truck at even cheaper rates.

Ball Player Ill—Edward Schlather, of the Kent base ball team, who came to the city to hold down first base for the visitors, was taken suddenly ill upon his arrival and this morning returned home, accompanied by J. G. Paxton, editor of the Kent Courier.

Expect to Buy Trotters—Michael O'Brien, bench boss at Laughlin No. 1, and Taylor Perkins, kilnman at Laughlin No. 2, are at Rush Run, O., where both will purchase thoroughbred trotters from a well known stockman. They expect to show East Liverpool two fast travelers upon their return.

Deserved Promotion—Ed L. McFarland, who for the past two years has been employed in the freight offices of the C. & P. in this city, has earned a deserved promotion, and left last evening for Cleveland to take a clerical position in the head offices of the superintendent of the C. & P. in that city.

Stone Throwers Fined—Three boys, Phil McCormick, Edward Prescott and Seth Nixon, were arraigned before Acting Mayor McLane last evening, charged with throwing stones at and breaking windows in Laughlin's pottery No. 3. They pleaded guilty and were each fined $1 and costs and given a scorching lecture.

An Enjoyable Reception—A pleasant reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cannon, of Sixth street, last evening in honor of Mrs. T. Stapleton, of New York: Mr. John Lillis and mother, of Baltimore, Md., and Miss Estelle Denning, of Ravenna, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cannon for several days. The affair was a most enjoyable one.

Comrades in the Civil War—John Rinchart, the Second street liveryman and Ross Rex, his guest from Salt Lake City, Utah, were happy in each other's company yesterday. Away back in the days of the civil war '61 to '65, they were messmates in the old Fifty-Second O. V. L., known as "McCook's Avengers." They looked up old comrades of the Fifty-Second in Steubenville and Toronto, many of whom Mr. Rex has not seen since the regiment was mustered out. Mr. Rex, although a resident of Salt Lake City, where he owns many business interests, is also general manager of the Gold Dust Mining company, of Leesburg, Idaho, and has prospered wonderfully. He was born and raised at Richmond, Jefferson county, and will visit his old home while east.

He will remain until today, meanwhile discussing with Mr. Roosevelt some pending departmental affairs.

It was announced last night that the secretary of the navy would arrive today.

Taylor Praised Kennedy.

"James Kennedy, the choice of the Ohio Eighteenth district congressional convention, is one of the best men the state could send to congress," said Hon. R. W. Taylor, who declined to succeed himself to the place, last night. Mr. Taylor and his wife registered at the Hotel Lincoln last evening. Continuing Mr. Taylor said: "My friend won and my friend lost. Kennedy will win out by a handsome majority. The last congressman from that county was L. D. Woodworth, who was nominated in 1872 and was re-nominated in 1874."—Pittsburg Dispatch.
